CD Hospital Unit Is Received Here

A 200-bed emergency hospital unit, complete with operating room facilities, arrived in Circleville today to become a permanent part of Civil Defense in this area.

Mrs. Byron Gulick, Walnut Creek Pike, a former chairman of the local CD committee, said the emergency hospital also includes a generator—in case of power failure — X-ray equipment and a fully equipped laboratory.

Mrs. Gulick said Pickaway County is fortunate in acquiring the hospital unit. She said Circleville is one of the few cities in the state presently in possession of the CD facilities.

A request was made for the unit about two years ago from the State Civil Defense Association.

AT THAT time, Mrs. Gulick said, Pickaway County Commissioners allotted money for the remodeling of the basement at Memorial Hall where the equipment will be stored.

The emergency hospital unit is to be used for civil defense in this area in case of nuclear attack, fires, floods or any emergency that would merit utilization.

Mrs. Gulick said all instruments and equipment have been sterilized and are ready for use. Present plans call for use of the Methodist Church basement, the armory or other nearby structure that could be converted into a hospital.

Ford, Union Far Apart on New Contract

DETROIT (AP) — Prospects of Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers union reaching a complete settlement on a labor contract within the next few days appeared to have diminished today.

Another week may be required. The negotiations are continuing under secrecy wraps.

This was indicated Wednesday when the bargaining teams split up into subcommittees to study contract change sought by both the company and the union.

Three subcommittees have been assigned to deal with contract language covering pensions, insurance and supplemental unemployment benefits. These are some of the areas in which the union is trying to gain from Ford a better settlement than it made with General Motors.

A fourth subcommittee was set up to work on problems at Ford's steel plant in Dearborn, Mich.

More than two months ago Ford proposed changes in the working agreement affecting steel workers at the company's Rouge Plant. Ford Monday offered the union a three-year contract paralleling the settlement made last week with General Motors. The union said this was not enough.

The GM settlement gives UAW members an increase of more than 12 cents an hour each year in take home pay and provides extra benefits in insurance, pensions and hospital-medical care.

House Ignores Senate Moans

'Let 'em Holler,' Say Congress Chiefs

WASHINGTON (AP) — House leaders have taken a "let 'em holler" attitude toward stormy Senate complaints about the wind-up of the congressional session.

The 1961 session came to a whirlwind—and angry—close early Wednesday morning. The House quit two hours before the Senate, forcing the Senate to go along with every detail in a big money measure.

Any change would have killed the bill and forced President Kennedy to call a special session to get the needed funds for several government agencies.

House leaders disclaimed any intention of denying the Senate a chance to alter the bill if it wanted to.

Rep. Clarence Cannon, D-Mo., told a newsman "they got caught in their own trap."

Cannon, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, added: "Mansfield knew all about it. We understood that the Senate would go along with the bill. They knew we were going to quit as soon as we passed it."

A top House spokesman who didn't want to be identified because of "the comity" between the two branches, said he suspected the cries of anguish from the Senate were the result of "offended dignity more than anything else."

"For years they have called the shots on adjournment," he said.

"They have let the House sit around for hours with nothing to do while senators made longwinded speeches before adopting a final adjournment resolution so we could go home. This year we got the jump on them and it apparently has hurt their feeling of superiority."

The 48-year-old Republican who just missed the White House last year set a militant tone in his long-awaited announcement on Wednesday night. But so did his opponents, both Democratic and Republican.

Nixon sized up Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown as "that amiable but bungling man." He promised a campaign that would "beat Pat Brown to a pulp."

Russia Offers 8-Point Peace Plan to U.N.

General Disarmament Proposal Stressed In New Red Memo

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Soviet Union sought today to counter President Kennedy's peace appeal with an eight-point program billed as a cure for international tensions.

The Soviet proposals—mainly a restatement of earlier ones put out by the Kremlin—were submitted to the U.N. Wednesday night with two other memoranda dealing with the nuclear test issue and colonialism.

The eight-point plan, promised by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko's policy when he spoke to the General Assembly Tuesday, included such Kremlin favorites as:

A nonaggression pact between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Warsaw powers, renunciation of use of atomic weapons, withdrawal of foreign troops from alien soil and measures to lessen the danger of surprise attack.

Kennedy's statement to the United Nations Monday on "general and complete disarmament in a peaceful world" contained several ideas which U.S. officials said could be cited on at once. They included an offer to sign a nuclear test ban treaty.

The Soviet memorandum on nuclear testing ignored this. It repeated Soviet insistence that "under the present conditions its proposal to resolve the question of a nuclear test cessation on the basis of general and complete disarmament is the sole correct and practical suggestion."

The Soviet memorandum on colonialism would set up a U.N. committee to supervise and control all colonies and dependent territories.

This document, which ran nearly 6,000 words, portrayed the United States as the master mind behind the colonial powers and accused the Americans of pushing colonial schemes of their own.

The latest Soviet arms program emphasized these main points:

1. A freeze of military budgets.
2. A renunciation of the use of atomic weapons.
3. A ban on war propaganda.
4. A nonaggression pact between the countries of NATO and the Warsaw treaty.
5. A withdrawal of foreign troops from alien territories.
6. Measures against further spreading of nuclear weapons.
7. Establishment of atom free zones in Africa and Central Europe.
8. Measures to lessen the danger of a surprise attack.

State Approval Needed

Commission OK's Vet Unit For Welfare Headquarters

The first step in breaking a three-week old deadlock on relocating operations of the County Welfare Department was taken late this morning. The Board of County Commissioners by a 2-1 vote gave approval to preliminary plans for placing departmental headquarters in the county-owned veteran's apartment building adjacent to W. High St.

Commission chairman Charles Morris Jr. and Commissioner Lloyd Melvin joined forces to override a negative vote by Commissioner Clyde Michel in deciding to employ a contractor to draw plans and prepare cost estimates on remodeling necessary to make the apartment unit suitable for welfare usage.

Final approval of any housing for a local welfare agency rests with State Welfare Department authorities. The plans and estimates made by the contractor will be submitted to the Ohio department.

Meeting in special session in Sheriff Walton W. Spangler's office, the Commissioners ruled out Memorial Hall as a possible Welfare Department location. Morris said cost of renovating the deteriorated brick building would be prohibitive.

Morris and Melvin agreed heating and other facilities could be added to the apartment building at a reasonable cost. After about five minutes of discussion Melvin, at Morris's request, offered a motion to retain a contractor to prepare information needed by the State Welfare Department before approval can be made.

MICHEL DECLINED when asked to second. He had supported an earlier state-approved plan submitted by County Welfare Director Pauline Rose to house department activities in a building at 121 S. Scioto St.

Pointing out the Commission had asked the Director in April to find suitable new quarters for her agency Michel said "I'm not going back on my word to her." He contended movement of the Welfare Department into the seven-unit building above the county garage would cost the county $25,200 in rent revenue in 10 years.

This was compared to $18,000 for a 10-year lease on the Scioto St. house, most of which would be paid from state funds. Morris pointed out, however, only one or two of the seven apartments would be in use by the Welfare Department. His figures showed a substantial savings of tax money by using the veteran's building.

Melvin added rent on the Scioto St. property offered by George Barnes, local realtor, had been doubled in the proposed lease over the amount paid by previous tenants. Michel retorted he, too, would raise rent (Continued on Page 2)

Can You Love Thy Neighbor, Use Violence on Him, Too?

NEW YORK (AP)—A Roman Catholic priest believes that man has a moral right to use violence to keep his unprepared neighbors from entering the family fallout shelter after a nuclear attack.

Writing in this week's issue of the Jesuit magazine "America," the Rev. L. C. McHugh, an associate editor of the periodical, said in an atomic bombing that possession of a fallout shelter is likely to be equivalent to life itself.

So, he said, if a neighbor deprived a family of its shelter, or forced his way in to use up food and facilities sufficient for the family alone, it would mean that some members of the family might have to die.

"Nowhere in traditional Catholic morality," Father McHugh wrote, "does one read that Christ, in counseling nonresistance to evil, rescinded the right of self-defense which is granted by nature and recognized in the legal systems of all nations."

A Jewish biblical scholar said Judaic law would permit a man to defend the lives of his family, but he asserted that any preparations for an atomic war—including fallout shelters—were immoral.

Rabbi Herbert Brichio, professor of Bible at the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, commenting on the article, said he did not think any creed, except pacifism, would deny a man the right to protect himself and his family.

"But my own approach," he said, "is that preparation for an atomic war, such as building fallout shelters, is immoral. The moral thing is not to prepare for the survival of a fraction of the human race, but to put all our efforts into avoiding such a catastrophe."

A noted Protestant theologian said he would not want to comment for attribution on the idea until he had seen the magazine article in full, but added, "It seems wrong to me."

"The Gospel makes two emphases, both of which have pertinence," said the Rev. Dr. Ben Herberst, president of the United Church of Christ.

"Jesus commanded every follower to have compassion on his neighbor. He also gave us the parable of the 10 virgins, which teaches that a man ought to make his own preparations, that he shouldn't presume on the compassion of others."

"To decide when compassion leaves off and presumption begins is the inherent right and responsibility of every Christian. Perhaps if in doubt, a Christian ought to err on the side of compassion."

Father McHugh agrees circumstances would dictate the type of action permissible, but he says, "violence to defend life and its equivalent goods (such as sufficient food and air) is justifiable when certain conditions are met."

These summarized, he said, are that the violence must be a last resort to repel an attack which has actually begun against a person's undoubted rights, provided he uses no more violence than is needed, though this may include killing the assailant.

If an attack should come, he says, the fallout shelter "is likely to be the one material good in your family's environment which is equivalent to life itself."

Deck Officers Start Strike on West Coast

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Deck officers on vessels in West Coast ports today began a ship-by-ship strike.

They voted the trike Wednesday after prolonged and snarled negotiations.

Affected are some 650 members of the Masters, Mates and Pilot Association, 13 companies represented by the Pacific Maritime Association (PMA).

Atlantic and Gulf shipping was not affected.

But New York Governor Gives Ex-Veep Chance

Californian Pledges To Serve 4 Years if Elected as Governor

WASHINGTON (AP)—Richard M. Nixon's decision to bid for the California governorship brightened the prospects today of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination.

But Rockefeller said today he has not eliminated Nixon as a contender for a second presidential try.

Of the possibility that Nixon's statement Wednesday night withdrawing from presidential competition had left Rockefeller a leading candidate, the governor said: "I really don't agree."

He said he would not make his own intentions regarding the GOP presidential nomination known until after his bid for re-election in New York state next year.

Rockefeller commented at a news conference. Most of the discussion concerned Nixon's announcement that he would run for governor of California next year and would not seek the presidency in 1964.

A draft, the governor said, "will always be a possibility."

The governor said he did not comprehend to pledge to serve four years as governor if re-elected, as Nixon did.

"I don't want to be committed," Rockefeller said.

Nixon pledged to serve a full four-year term if elected governor. But while declaring himself out of the 1964 presidential race he declined to say he would not respond to a draft. He was asked specifically about a draft and replied: "I shall not seek the presidency in 1964."

Nixon made it clear several weeks ago that if he ran for governor and was elected, he would not expect to enter any state presidential primaries in 1964.

His chances for the presidential nomination thus would be dependent on the development of a nationwide draft movement in his behalf, with the hefty California convention vote serving as the basis of his strength.

Rockefeller, who already has announced for re-election next year, might find himself in a position in a second term where he could enter such primaries. And Sen. John F. Kennedy proved in 1960 they furnish valuable momentum toward a presidential nomination.

Nixon's decision ties him largely to California issues for the more than a year that will elapse until the November 1962 election. This will mute the voice he has been using as titular head of his party on national and international issues.

If he is elected, he is likely to have his hands so full with a possible Democratic legislature there won't be much time for the detailed homework necessary to stay abreast of the ins and outs of national and world problems.

Rockefeller, on the other hand, would be likely to have a Republican legislature and be relatively freer to make out-of-state speeches on major issues and push the organizational work needed to win a nomination.

As governor of California and a former national GOP standard bearer Nixon would have a strong position in the party, where he retains far wider support than Rockefeller has yet been able to assemble.

But Republicans are likely to remember that while Nixon carried California last year, he could not make the grade in New York and didn't win the presidency.

Sweden Pays Tribute to Hammarskjold

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Sweden today honored Dag Hammarskjold with a solemn ceremony unmatched in pomp for any commoner in this nation's long history.

The bodies of the late United Nations secretary-general and nine others who perished with him in a plane crash in the Congo arrived here escorted by eight jet fighters.

Hammarskjold's saddened countrymen received him with honors usually accorded only to a king who has fallen in battle.

More than 300 soldiers paraded. A 43-man army band played the royal death march at Stockholm's Brom Airport, the airport from which Hammarskjold departed eight years ago to take up his post at the United Nations.

As the band started playing with muffled drums, Hammarskjold's coffin was carried from a hangar and placed on a catfife in the center of square formed by soldiers and Reg. Cross personnel standing at attention.

A chilly breeze fluttered the flags of five nations—the United States, Sweden, Haiti, Canada and Ireland. Those are the countries of the other victims of the plane crash that took Hammarskjold's life.

Kennedy Counts On Boat Outing

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Kennedy counted on a fair weather forecast for another boat ride today. He put relaxation, and no more work than necessary, on his program.

Kennedy has assigned Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson to discuss East-West problems with U.S. officials in Paris.

Johnson is going to Europe as head of the U.S. delegation at the funeral Friday of Dag Hammarskjold, United Nations secretary-general, in Stockholm, Sweden.

The vacation White House announced that Kennedy asked Johnson to stop in Paris on the way home.

General Disarmament Proposal Stressed In New Red Memo

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

—The Soviet Union sought today to counter President Kennedy's peace appeal with an eight-point program billed as a cure for international tensions.

The Soviet proposals—mainly a restatement of earlier ones put out by the Kremlin—were submitted to the U.N. Wednesday night with two other memoranda dealing with the nuclear test issue and colonialism.

The eight-point plan, promised by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko's policy when he spoke to the General Assembly Tuesday, included such Kremlin favorites as:

Nixon's California Decision Assures Slambang Campaign

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Richard M. Nixon's decision to run for governor of California in 1962—and not seek the presidency in 1964—provided all the makings today for a slambang campaign.

The 48-year-old Republican who just missed the White House last year set a militant tone in his long-awaited announcement on Wednesday night. But so did his opponents, both Democratic and Republican.

Nixon sized up Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown as "that amiable but bungling man." He promised a campaign that would "beat Pat Brown to a pulp."

"The government, that State House in Sacramento, is in a mess and somebody has to clean it up," he told a televised news conference.

Stung by a question on his personal finances, Nixon said he had been threatened and warned that "every dead cat and every old story would be thrown up and used against me."

"Let me just say that nobody is going to frighten me. Nobody is going to drive me out of this contest."

Accepting Nixon's challenge, Brown declared his candidacy would galvanize majority Democrats into "a fighting crusade." Democrats hold a 1.4-million lead in registration.

"I welcome the opportunity to confront Richard Nixon in a campaign that once and for all will retire him to private life," Brown said in a press statement.

The governor said Nixon's announcement "means simply that he will be a candidate for president again in 1964"—midway in the four-year state term.

Nixon said flatly, "I shall not seek the presidency in 1964," but he did not absolutely remove himself from another try.

He was asked whether he would make a Sherman-like statement that if nominated again in 1964 he would not accept.

His reply: "This is the Nixon statement. It means just what it says. I shall not be a candidate in 1964 and I know that the people of America will take me at my word."

Gen. William Sherman's historic political statement was to the effect that he would not run if nominated, would not serve if elected.

CD Hospital Unit Is Received Here

A 200-bed emergency hospital unit, complete with operating room facilities, arrived in Circleville today to become a permanent part of Civil Defense in this area.

Mrs. Byron Gulick, Walnut Creek Pike, a former chairman of the local CD committee, said the emergency hospital also includes a generator—in case of power failure—X-ray equipment and a fully equipped laboratory.

Mrs. Gulick said Pickaway County is fortunate in acquiring the hospital unit. She said Circleville is one of the few cities in the state presently in possession of the CD facilities.

A request was made for the unit about two years ago from the State Civil Defense Association.

AT THAT time, Mrs. Gulick said, Pickaway County Commissioners allotted money for three modeling of the basement at Memorial Hall where the equipment will be stored.

The emergency hospital unit is to be used for civil defense in this area in case of nuclear attack, fires, floods or any emergency that would merit utilization.

Mrs. Gulick said all instruments and equipment have been sterilized and are ready for use. Present plans call for use of the Methodist Church basement, the armory or other nearby structure that could be converted into a hospital.

Ford, Union Far Apart on New Contract

DETROIT (AP)—Prospects of Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers union reaching a complete settlement on a labor contract within the next few days appeared to have diminished today.

Another week may be required. The negotiations are continuing under secrecy wraps.

This was indicated Wednesday when the bargaining teams split up into subcommittees to study contract change sought by both the company and the union.

Three subcommittees have been assigned to deal with contract language covering pensions, insurance and supplemental unemployment benefits. These are some of the areas in which the union is trying to gain from Ford a better settlement than it made with General Motors.

A fourth subcommittee was set up to work on problems at Ford's steel plant in Dearborn, Mich.

More than two months ago Ford proposed changes in the working agreement affecting steel workers at the company's Rouge Plant.

Ford Monday offered the union a three-year contract paralleling the settlement made last week with General Motors. The union said this was not enough.

The GM settlement gives UAW members an increase of more than 12 cents an hour each year in take home pay and provides extra benefits in insurance, pensions and hospital-medical care.

Sweden Pays Tribute to Hammarskjold

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Sweden today honored Dag Hammarskjold with a solemn ceremony unmatched in pomp for any commoner in this nation's long history.

The bodies of the late United Nations secretary-general and nine others who perished with him in a plane crash in the Congo arrived here escorted by eight jet fighters.

Hammarskjold's saddened countrymen received him with honors usually accorded only to a king who has fallen in battle.

More than 300 soldiers paraded. A 43-man army band played the royal death march at Stockholm's Brom Airport, the airport from which Hammarskjold departed eight years ago to take up his post at the United Nations.

As the band started playing with muffled drums, Hammarskjold's coffin was carried from a hangar and placed on a catfque in the center of square formed by soldiers and Red Cross personnel standing at attention.

A chilly breeze fluttered the flags of five nations—the United States, Sweden, Haiti, Canada and Ireland. Those are the countries of the other victims of the plane crash that took Hammarskjold's life.

Kennedy Counts On Boat Outing

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—President Kennedy counted on a fair weather forecast for another boat ride today. He put relaxation, and no more work than necessary, on his program.

Kennedy has designated Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson to discuss East-West problems with U.S. officials in Paris.

Johnson is going to Europe as head of the U.S. delegation at the funeral Friday of Dag Hammarskjold, United Nations secretary-general, in Stockholm, Sweden.

The vacation White House announced that Kennedy asked Johnson to stop in Paris on the way home.

India, the United Arab Republic and Venezuela called for an urgent assembly investigation into the death of Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold in a plane crash in Northern Rhodesia Sept. 17. They asked that the matter be placed on the assembly's agenda.

Behind-scenes efforts continued, meanwhile, to get assembly action on a stopgap successor for Hammarskjold. Representatives of a 12-nation group met privately on Wednesday night to consider further a possible resolution that would have the assembly approve the naming of a stop-gap candidate to supervise the operation of the secretariat until a regular secretary-general can be agreed upon.

Candidates under consideration include the assembly president, Mongi Slim of Tunisia, Ambassador U Thant of Burma, Frederick H. Boland of Ireland, past assembly president, and Ambassador Raipha Enckell of Finland.

Emergency Aid Given to Six

Six persons received emergency treatment yesterday at Berger Hospital following accidents other than automobile mishaps.

Jeff Welsh, 2, son of Mrs. Louise Welsh, Route 2, Ashville, was treated for a laceration of the forehead after he fell on a ball while playing at home.

Clyde Leist, 73, of 629 S. Scioto St., tripped and fell against a wall while working at the Pickaway Dairy. He received a laceration of the forehead.

Harvey Easter, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Easter, Route 2, Laurelvile, received treatment for a scalp laceration following an accident while playing at home.

Bill Camp, 21, of 589 E. Main St., was treated for a laceration of the right hand following an injury while working in Columbus.

Paul Evans, 16, of 214 W. Franklin St., was treated for a sprained ankle received while playing football.

Ralph Baldwin Jr., 8, Williamport, injured his right foot in a fall from a sliding board at school.

Pumpkin Show Reminders

Additional entertainment groups to perform at the Circleville Pumpkin Show Oct. 18-21 were listed today by show officials.

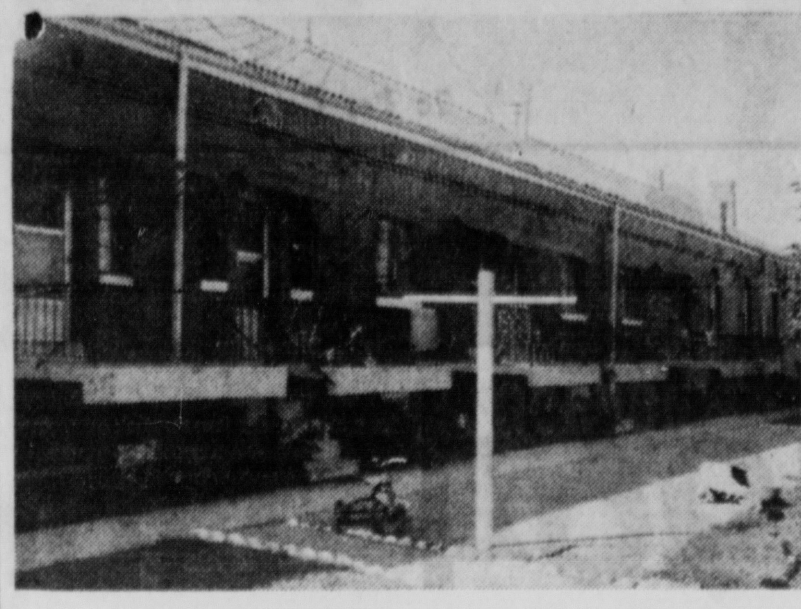

Some of the many entertainers are the Pickaway County Fair talent winning Monotones, the Ohio State Country Roundup of Columbus, the Moose Jamboree of Columbus, the Chili-O-Chap-er Sweet Adeline, Inc. of Chillicothe, Adena Ridge Square Dancers of Ross County, the Lockbourne Air Force Base Judo team, Janet Greene of television fame, the Toledo Demons Junior Daring Drill Team and the All-Star Drum and Bugle Corps and Twirlers from Springfield.

Lending additional interest to the huge entertainment program will be many band concerts, baton twirling, jitterbug, pie eating and many other contests, a Circleville High School football pep rally and record hops.

considerably if one of his properties were converted from residential to quasi-business use.

Melvin offered to take "any taxpayer in the street, show him those apartments and if he says their not good enough, change my position." No action was taken on this proposal.

The meeting was marked by the absence of Miss Reese. She stated in an interview later she had not been notified the Welfare relocation issue would be on the agenda. She added the Commissioners had not informed her of their vote.

A ROLL call by clerk - Auditor Marvinne Rhoades showed Melvin favoring and Michel disapproving approval. Morris broke the tie by voting with Melvin.

The Commissioners were to meet at the apartment building at 2 p. m. today to consult with contractors.

It was hinted other county departments may be moved into the apartment building at a later date. Overcrowding in the Courthouse has been a source of concern for the Commission for many months.

No definite transfers were discussed, pending outcome of the attempt to relocate the Welfare Department.

REFUSAL by state officials to approve the building for Welfare use would throw the situation back in the Commissioner's hands.

In other action during the special session the Commissioners complied with a request from Fairfield County Commissioners to order Carl Chamberlain of Route 1, Stoutsville, to remove an obstruction in the watercourse adjacent to the County Line Rd. ditch.

Chamberlain has 30 days to remove the barrier. If he refuses, the matter will return to Fairfield officials for further action.

County Prosecutor Robert Huffer was asked to contact the guardian of a patient in the County Home to arrange payment of back bills. Bills for the patient's care have accumulated since February, 1955 and now total $5,135.

Stock Mart Clings to Upside Edge

NEW YORK (AP)—Selective improvement gave the stock market an upside edge in moderate trading early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .70 at 251.60 with industrials up .60, rails up .40 and utilities up .70.

Gains of fractions to about a point among key stocks outnumbered losers.

In the absence of any major news development it appeared as a resumption of the technical recovery of the past two days but as the session continued the rally lost steam.

Aircrafts, rails, utilities, chemicals, electronics and airlines were on the upside. The trend was lower among steels and motors while drugs and nonferrous metals were spotty.

In a second day reaction to news of their proposed merger, Montgomery Ward was down about a point and Interstate Department Stores lost around 2.

Du Pont was down a couple of points.

General Motors eased. Ford erased most of a 1-point loss, as labor negotiations proceeded. Chrysler was up a fraction.

Douglas and some other aircrafts were fractional gainers.

Beckman Instruments and Argo Oil were up 3 points or so. International Business Machines gained about 6. Texas Instruments, Brunswick and Litton Industries advanced more than a point each.

Kennecott and consolidated natural gas were ahead about a point.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon as up .44 at 701.57. Prices on the American Stock Exchange advanced in moderate active trading.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds declined in slow dealings.

Disappearance Of Elderly Lady Probed Anew

CLEVELAND (AP)—What happened to Mrs. Betty Van Tilburg? It was April 1957 that Mrs. Van Tilburg, then 72, vanished from her quiet home in suburban Rocky River. The death last week of her husband, James C. Van Tilburg, in Mansfield renewed interest in the 4 1/2-year-old mystery.

Van Tilburg was in Lakewood Hospital when friends and neighbors found that Mrs. Van Tilburg was gone from the home. One neighbor found a note and money in her mailbox asking that she pay some bills for Mrs. Van Tilburg.

A light that had been seen in the house the night before was out in the morning, leading speculation that Mrs. Van Tilburg left sometime during the night. But Rocky River police and relatives of the Van Tilburgs in Mansfield have found no trace of the woman.

Mrs. Van Tilburg, who had no children, seldom had left the house. She depended on neighbors to get her to the hospital to visit her husband.

The family attorney, Russell C. Grahame, said he is very anxious to locate Mrs. Van Tilburg since the couple jointly owned considerable property. Grahame estimated the value of Van Tilburg's estate about $70,000.

Rooming House Fire
Fatal to Toledoan

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—One man died and firemen led five other persons to safety today in a rooming house fire.

Burned to death was Duncan M. McGhee, 51, of Toledo. McGhee moved to Toledo last month after operating filling stations in Indianapolis, Ind., and Berlin Center, Ohio.

Deputy Fire Chief Charles Lentz blamed the fire on careless smoking by McGhee.

Two tenants of the building, Aaron York, 57, and James W. Parker, 74 were carried down ladders by firemen. Mrs. Gertrude Adams, 62; her granddaughter, Miss Dawn Henderson, 22, and another tenant, Nelson Liggett, 36, were led from the flaming building by firemen.

Damage was estimated at $2,000.

Deaths

MRS. VALLEY BOYER
Mrs. Valley Boyer, 84, died 5:30 p. m. yesterday in her residence at Oakland following a long illness.

Mrs. Boyer was born April 2, 1876, in New Lexington, the daughter of Albert and Clara Spigler Bailey. She is survived by her husband, George, who has been a barber for many years in Oakland. A sister, Daisy Bailey, of the residence, also survives.

Services will be 2 p. m. Saturday in the Defenbaugh Funeral Home, with the Rev. T. R. McGinnis officiating. Burial will be in Forest Rose Cemetery, Lancaster. Friends may call at the funeral home beginning 1 p. m. Friday.

MR. HARLEY HILLIARD
Mr. Harley Hilliard, 78, Route 1, Laurelvile, died at 11:20 a. m. yesterday in the Hocking Valley Nursing Home.

Mr. Hilliard was born Oct. 23, 1882, in Hocking County, the son of Samuel and Amanda Davis Hilliard.

Survivors include a brother, Guy Hilliard, Route 1, Laurelvile, and a sister, Mrs. Bessie Horsemann, Lancaster.

Services will be at 2 p. m. Sunday in the Defenbaugh Funeral Home with the Rev. Samuel Elsea officiating.

Friends may call at the funeral home beginning 6 p. m. tomorrow. Burial will be in Bethany Cemetery.

Jury To Hear Non-Support Case

A Pickaway County man was bound to the January session of the Grand Jury today in Circleville Municipal Court on a non-support charge.

William Davis, Route 4, pleaded innocent to non-support charges filed by his wife, Irene L. Davis. Bond was set at $500 by Judge Sterling Lamb.

The affidavit charged Davis with neglecting to support and provide for his two minor children.

Clerk Employed By Muny Court

Miss Rita Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cook, 217 Linden Lane has been employed as clerk in the Circleville Municipal Court offices.

Miss Cook replaces Mrs. Maxine Wantz, 229 Watt St., who has resigned her position and will be employed beginning Monday by Dr. F. W. Anderson and Dr. J. M. Hedges.

Little Change Expected Here Due to New Mailing System

No major changes are anticipated in mail delivery here when a new mailing system goes into effect Sunday.

Postal officials here said local schedules will remain about the same. However, some changes will take place in outgoing and incoming deliveries to and from other areas.

Following a loop route system, the Circleville office will operate under only one star route instead of three as previously done. Starting Monday a carrier will leave here at 7:20 a. m. for Williamsport, Atlanta, Clarksburg and New Holland. At 4 p. m. the vehicle will leave Circleville again from New Holland and will come back through Clarksburg, Atlanta and Williamsport.

These changes are part of a switchover to sectional mail centers, with Circleville fortunately being close to Columbus which serves as a hub for the system. One aim of the change is to provide delivery the next day for mail which is post marked by the 5 p. m. deadline of the day before.

THE Circleville office will serve as a sort of satellite for the smaller offices, including Williamsport, Atlanta, New Holland and Clarksburg. The sectional center will be Columbus.

Leon Van Vliet, assistant postmaster here, said the change seems to be encouraging as far as this office is concerned. He said Circleville's close proximity to Columbus is a definite advantage in regard to the new system.

Scouting Season Opens for Pack

Cub Pack 205 initiated the fall Scouting season last night with a meeting at the Presbyterian Church.

Registration and uniform inspection prevailed during the meeting. Pack officials reported 20 Cubs re-registered and 18 were taken in as new members.

Mike Vaughan and John Demjen received perfect inspection scores.

Speakers were C. K. Vaughan, committee chairman, Phillip Hines, neighborhood commissioner and Frank Demjen, cubmaster.

Kenneth Luna presented an interesting lecture and demonstration on making masks and other objects from paper mache.

India, the United Arab Republic and Venezuela called for an urgent assembly investigation into the death of Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold in a plane crash in Northern Rhodesia Sept. 17. They asked that the matter be placed on the assembly's agenda.

Behind-scenes efforts continued, meanwhile, to get assembly action on a stopgap successor for Hammarskjold. Representatives of a 12-nation group met privately on Wednesday night to consider further a possible resolution that would have the assembly approve the naming of a stop-gap candidate to supervise the operation of the secretariat until a regular secretary-general can be agreed upon.

Candidates under consideration include the assembly president, Mongi Slim of Tunisia, Ambassador U Thant of Burma, Frederick H. Boland of Ireland, past assembly president, and Ambassador Ralph Enckell of Finland.

Emergency Aid
Given to Six

Six persons received emergency treatment yesterday at Berger Hospital following accidents other than automobile mishaps.

Jeff Welsh, 2, son of Mrs. Louise Welsh, Route 2, Ashville, was treated for a laceration of the forehead after he fell on a ball while playing at home.

Clydes Leist, 73, of 629 S. Scioto St., tripped and fell against a wall while working at the Pickaway Dairy. He received a laceration of the forehead.

Harvey Easter, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Easter, Route 2, Laurelville, received treatment for a scalp laceration following an accident while playing at home.

Bill Camp, 21, of 569 E. Main St., was treated for a laceration of the right hand following an injury while working in Columbus.

Paul Evans, 16, of 214 W. Franklin St., was treated for a sprained ankle received while playing football.

Ralph Baldwin Jr., 8, Williamport, injured his right foot in a fall from a sliding board at school.

Pumpkin Show
Reminders

Additional entertainment groups to perform at the Circleville Pumpkin Show Oct. 18-21 were listed today by show officials.

Some of the many entertainers are the Pickaway County Fair talent winning Monotones, the Ohio State Country Roundup of Columbus, the Moose Jamboree of Columbus, the Chilli-O-Chap Sweet Adeline, Inc. of Chillicothe, Adena Ridge Square Dancers of Ross County, the Lockbourne Air Force Base judo team, Janet Greene of television fame, the Toledo Demons Junior Darling Drill Team and the All-Star Drum and Bugle Corps and Twirlers from Springfield.

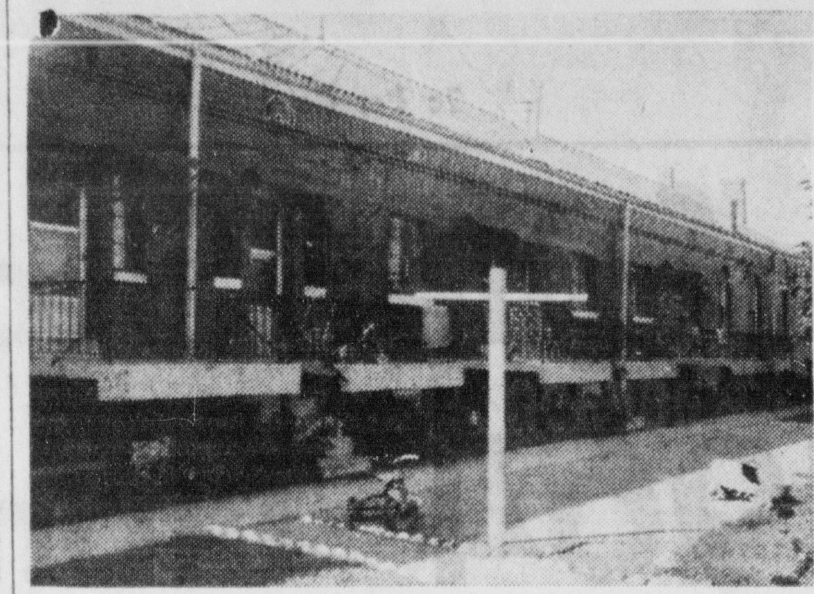

Lending additional interest to the huge entertainment program will be many band concerts, baton twirling, jitterbug, pie eating and many other contests, a Circleville High School football pep rally and record hops.

Commission ...

GETS COMMISSION APPROVAL — The veteran's apartment building just off W. High St. across the N & W Railroad tracks, received approval as the new County Welfare Department headquarters by a split vote this morning during a special County Commission session. State authorities must now approve. (Staff Photo)

considerably if one of his properties were converted from residential to quasi-business use.

Melvin offered to take "any taxpayer in the street, show him those apartments and if he says their not good enough, change my position." No action was taken on this proposal.

The meeting was marked by the absence of Miss Reese. She stated in an interview later she had not been notified the Welfare relocation issue would be on the agenda. She added the Commissioners had not informed her of their vote.

A ROLL call by clerk - Auditor Marvinne Rhoades showed Melvin favoring and Michel disapproving approval. Morris broke the tie by voting with Melvin.

The Commissioners were to meet at the apartment building at 2 p. m. today to consult with contractors.

It was hinted other county departments may be moved into the apartment building at a later date. Overcrowding in the Courthouse has been a source of concern for the Commission for many months.

No definite transfers were discussed, pending outcome of the attempt to relocate the Welfare Department.

REFUSAL by state officials to approve the building for Welfare use would throw the situation back in the Commissioner's hands.

In other action during the special session the Commissioners complied with a request from Fairfield County Commissioners to order Carl Chamberlain of Route 1, Stoutsville, to remove an obstruction in the watercourse adjacent to the County Line Rd. ditch.

Chamberlain has 30 days to remove the barrier. If he refuses, the matter will be returned to Fairfield officials for further action.

County Prosecutor Robert Huffer was asked to contact the guardian of a patient in the County Home to arrange payment of back bills. Bills for the patient's care have accumulated since February, 1955 and now total $5,135.

Rooming House Fire
Fatal to Toledoan

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—One man died and firemen led five other persons to safety today in a rooming house fire.

Burned to death was Duncan M. McGhee, 51, of Toledo. McGhee moved to Toledo last month after operating filling stations in Indianapolis, Ind., and Berlin Center, Ohio.

Deputy Fire Chief Charles Lentz blamed the fire on careless smoking by McGhee.

Two tenants of the building, Aaron York, 57, and James W. Parker, 74 were carried down ladders by firemen. Mrs. Gertrude Adams 62; her granddaughter, Miss Dawn Henderson, 22, and another tenant, Nelson Liggett, 36, were led from the flaming building by firemen.

Damage was estimated at $2,000.

CLEVELAND (AP)—What happened to Mrs. Betty Van Tilburg? It was April 1957 that Mrs. Van Tilburg, then 72, vanished from her quiet home in suburban Rocky River. The death last week of her husband, James C. Var Tilburg, in Mansfield renewed interest in the 4 1/2-year-old mystery.

Van Tilburg was in Lakewood Hospital when friends and neighbors found that Mrs. Van Tilburg was gone from the home. One neighbor found a note and money in her mailbox asking that she pay some bills for Mrs. Van Tilburg.

A light that had been seen in the house the night before was out in the morning, leading speculation that Mrs. Van Tilburg left sometime during the night. But Rocky River police and relatives of the Van Tilburgs in Mansfield have found no trace of the woman.

Mrs. Van Tilburg, who had no children, seldom had left the house. She depended on neighbors to get her to the hospital to visit her husband.

The family attorney, Russell C. Grahame, said he is very anxious to locate Mrs. Van Tilburg since the couple jointly owned considerable property. Grahame estimated the value of Van Tilburg's estate at about $70,000.

Deaths

MRS. VALLEY BOYER
Mrs. Valley Boyer, 84, died 5:30 p. m. yesterday in her residence at Oakland following a long illness.

Mrs. Boyer was born April 2, 1876, in New Lexington, the daughter of Albert and Clara Spigler Bailey. She is survived by her husband, George, who has been a barber for many years in Oakland. A sister, Daisy Bailey, of the residence, also survives.

Services will be 2 p. m. Saturday in the Defenbaugh Funeral Home, with the Rev. T. R. McGinnis officiating. Burial will be in Forest Rose Cemetery, Lancaster. Friends may call at the funeral home beginning 1 p. m. Friday.

MR. HARLEY HILLIARD
Mr. Harley Hilliard, 78, Route 1, Laurelville, died at 11:20 a. m. yesterday in the Hocking Valley Nursing Home.

Mr. Hilliard was born Oct. 23, 1882, in Hocking County, the son of Samuel and Amanda Davis Hilliard.

Survivors include a brother, Guy Hilliard, Route 1, Laurelville, and a sister, Mrs. Bessie Horseman, Lancaster.

Services will be at 2 p. m. Sunday in the Defenbaugh Funeral Home with the Rev. Samuel Elsea officiating.

Friends may call at the funeral home beginning 6 p. m. tomorrow. Burial will be in Bethany Cemetery.

Jury To Hear
Non-Support Case

A Pickaway County man was bound to the January session of the Grand Jury today in Circleville Municipal Court on a non-support charge.

William Davis, Route 4, pleaded innocent to non-support charges filed by his wife, Irene L. Davis. Bond was set at $500 by Judge Sterling Lamb.

The affidavit charged Davis with neglecting to support and provide for his two minor children.

Clerk Employed
By Muny Court

Miss Rita Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cook, 217 Linden Lane has been employed as clerk in the Circleville Municipal Court offices.

Miss Cook replaces Mrs. Maxine Wantz, 229 Watt St., who has resigned her position and will be employed beginning Monday by Dr. F. W. Anderson and Dr. J. M. Hedges.

Little Change Expected Here
Due to New Mailing System

No major changes are anticipated in mail delivery here when a new mailing system goes into effect Sunday.

Postal officials here said local schedules will remain about the same. However, some changes will take place in outgoing and incoming deliveries to and from other areas.

Following a loop route system, the Circleville office will operate under only one star route instead of three as previously done. Starting Monday a carrier will leave here at 7:20 a. m. for Williamsport, Atlanta, Clarksburg and New Holland. At 4 p. m. the vehicle will leave Circleville again from New Holland and will come back through Clarksburg, Atlanta and Williamsport.

These changes are part of a switchover to sectional mail centers, with Circleville fortunately being close to Columbus which serves as a hub for the system. One aim of the change is to provide delivery the next day for mail

Scouting Season
Opens for Pack

Cub Pack 205 initiated the fall Scouting season last night with a meeting at the Presbyterian Church.

Registration and uniform inspection prevailed during the meeting. Pack officials reported 20 Cubs re-registered and 18 were taken in as new members.

Mike Vaughan and John Demjen received perfect inspection scores.

Speakers were C. K. Vaughan, committee chairman, Phillip Hines, neighborhood commissioner and Frank Demjen, cubmaster.

Kenneth Luna presented an interesting lecture and demonstration on making masks and other objects from paper mache.

Laurelville News

By Mrs. Ray Poling

Members of the Womens Christian Temperance Union from Logan, Laurelville, Kingston, Adelphi and Hallsville gathered in the Methodist Church in Adelphi Wednesday for the annual convention of the organization.

Speakers were, Mrs. Harold Brown state president and Miss Ruth Duncan state corresponding secretary, both of Columbus.

Officers for the year are: Mrs. Paul Monks, president; Mrs. Ray Poling, vice president; Mrs. Vance Stewart, recording secretary; and Mrs. Fred Keller, treasurer. A delicious dinner was served in the dining room of the church at noon by members of the hostess church.

Attending from Laurelville and Adelphi were Mrs. Earl DeLong, Mrs. Ray Poling, Mrs. Pearl McClelland, Mrs. Mildred Armstrong, Mrs. G. H. Armstrong, Mrs. Orland DeLong, Mrs. Florence Bowsher, Mrs. Ed Fetherolf and Mrs. Elsie Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ritchie (Marlene Archer of Weirton, W. Va., were Saturday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mervin McClelland.

Sunday guests of Mrs. Loi Tattman were, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Tattman of Portsmouth, Mrs. Lewis Roll and Mrs. Robert Roll of Chillicothe and Mr. Melvin Tattman and children of Laurelville.

Mrs. O. S. Liming of Xenia spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. David Fetherolf.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huggins and son of Columbus were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Huggins.

The Pleasant Valley Home Demonstration Club met Thursday afternoon at the Laurelville Park Shelterhouse with Mrs. John Fortner, Mrs. Frances Disbennett and Mrs. Charles Pritchard as hostesses.

For devotions Mrs. Ed Fetherolf read the poems, "Late September", "Growing Old", and "Thinking" and Mrs. Roy Haynes read "Four Ages of Man".

Mrs. Ray Poling and Mrs. Charles Pritchard gave a report on "The Short Course" they attended at Ohio State University in July for all members. It was decided to have a display of the Club's Projects of each month in the past year at the Firmans Carnival during the week of Oct. 3 to 7.

Refreshments were served. Others present were Mrs. Hugh Poling, Mrs. Burnell Karshner, Mrs. Howard Thompson and daughter, and two new members, Mrs. John Spencer and Mrs. Dale Van Curen.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Chilcote and son of Columbus were Saturday evening guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Chilcote.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Chrisman and son, Don, and Mr. C. C. West of Sinking Springs, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bradley.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harmon of Columbus were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dartha Harmon.

Johnny and Janet Reid, both students at Ohio State University, Columbus, spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young of Columbus spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Jean Shupe.

Mrs. Florence Portious was in Athens on Friday to attend a meeting of District New and Acting Postmasters. She was accompanied by Mrs. Paul Armstrong who visited with her father, W. T. Marshall.

Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Warren, (Wanda Archer) have moved to their newly purchased home at 4916 Bristow Drive, Annandale, Va. Mr. Warren reported for duty with the Agriculture Department in Washington on Aug. 7.

On Sept. 17 Mr. F. E. Mettler

and daughter Helen entertained to dinner, Mrs. Jack Satterfield and children Jill and John of near Chicago, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mettler and daughter Mary Elizabeth of West Palm Beach, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Don Millions of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. William Goodchild of Circleville, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Mettler and Susan, and Goldie Byers of Laurelville.

Mrs. Russell Clevenger (Jane Cavinee) was honored guest at a stork shower Saturday evening, given in the social rooms of the EUB Church. Hostesses were Mrs. Robert Butts and Mrs. Charles Hanes Jr.

On Friday evening, Miss Beverly McNeal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McNeal of South Perry, and David Karr, son of Mrs. Lodena Karr of South Perry, were married in the Laurelville EUB Church. The ceremony was performed by The Rev. Wayne Fowler.

Sewage-Dumping Rap Faces Cincinnati Men

BATAVIA, Ohio (AP)—Clermont County authorities are seeking the arrest of two Cincinnati men accused of dumping 30,000 gallons of sewage in a small stream in violation of a county ordinance. S. Ralph Frazier, county sanitarian, said John T. Haywood and Clemmie Terry, both employed by Argo Plumbing Co. of Cincinnati, were working on the sewage treatment plant at Amelia High School when the offense was committed.

All OSU Societies End Discrimination

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Every fraternity and sorority at Ohio State University now has a non-restrictive, nondiscriminatory constitution, reports John T. Bonner, executive dean of student relations. The last two of the 45 fraternities reached agreement with their national chapters shortly before a Sept. 18 deadline, Bonner said, to drop restrictive sections. All have come into compliance with a university regulation prohibiting them from refusing membership because of color, race, creed, religion or national origin. They are not required, however, to rush anyone on this basis.

Cherry Street Vigilantes

One Philadelphia neighborhood has found an answer to rampaging hordes of robbers in a favorite protective device of early frontier towns before the establishment of law and order. The Cherry Street Vigilantes organized by William Spawm after his home was burglarized, have caught their first outlaw.

More than 100 residents of an area plagued by a high incidence of crime joined in nightly vigil from their doorways, upstairs windows and other surreptitious outposts. Weeks of patient surveillance finally paid off in the capture of a New York city teenager caught breaking into one of the homes in the protected area.

It is a sad reflection of the weakening fibers of society that men must again band together in vigilante fashion to protect themselves from marauders, but it is heartening that at least one small group of Philadelphians has shown the determination to accomplish a community task that had to be done, even if it meant giving up a great amount of time and exposing themselves to possible danger.

Crime statistics show no indication of reversing their upward flight. There are sections of large cities today in which it is not safe to walk the streets at night nor even live except behind locked doors. If the crime wave continues unabated, all respect of law may vanish with society returning to the law of the jungle.

Vigilante associations, operating inside the law, are one way of preventing chaos in cities badly afflicted with a high rate of crime, but isn't the very need for these associations indicative of the general decay which has attacked the individual morals of many citizens?

Perhaps the Cherry Street Vigilantes are evidence of growing awareness that in police protection, as in all other functions of government, the beginning of responsibility lies in each citizen's home.

Time-Killers: Window-Starers

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—The average American office worker knows at least 101 different ways of killing time on the job.

Experts, of course, know a lot more.

The methods of wasting time range all the way from mere paper shuffling to hiding out in the rest rooms or taking a secret nap in the supply room.

Over the years each office employee finds his own favorite and successful means of loafing constructively on company time so that, come dusk, he'll have stored up enough strength to enjoy the evening doing as he pleases.

In a class by themselves are those who stare out the office windows. It may seem simple to waste time staring out a window, but to do so and still give the impression you are busy with company problems is a very difficult art. Those who get away with it are among the elite actors in the office zoo.

Here are some types of window starers you may be familiar with in your own firm:

Sneaky Sid—The middle-aged bookkeeper pretends he is cleaning his glasses, but actually he is looking through the lenses at a shapely lass crossing the street a block and a half away.

Tricky Tessie—The pretty secretary gives every impression she is paying full attention to dictation. But every time the boss turns his eyes to the ceiling for a helpful phrase, she looks out the window and tries to play peek-a-boo with the handsome young lawyer in the office across the way.

Hungover Harry—He isn't really looking out the window at all. He is only wondering, "Maybe if I opened it and jumped out the pain would go away."

Fly-Specking Phil—Going to each of the 27 office windows in turn, the third vice-president rubs a bit of dust off each with his fingers, then announces loudly, "It's about time someone told the building management these windows need cleaning again. Do I have to think of everything around this place?" He has killed half a day once a week with this pet routine for the last 28 years. A real pro, this old boy.

Amateur Albert—An eager beaver in the personnel department, he actually does find company problems crowding into his mind whenever he looks out the window. A pitiful case, doomed to early ulcers.

Hard-Up Herbert—Shaking his head, and jingling a few coins in his pocket, he strides back and forth by his window. He gives the air of being deep in thought over a way to speed up production. Here's what's really on his mind: "Who can I hit up for lunch money today?"

Nonchalant Ned—The top salesman sits with his feet on his desk and carelessly sails paper airplanes out the window. Everyone admires him because he doesn't have to pretend. He's the only guy bringing fresh money into the firm.

Wistful Wilbur—This is the boss himself. When he looks out the window he has a vague impulse to raise it and cry "Help!" He knows that somewhere in the crowds below must be a few people he could hire and really get some work done around the office. But which? Who? Where?

There they are—the window starers, the elite of the office time-wasters.

Recognize yourself?

Nansen Helped People

By George Sokolsky

It is not usual that a passport is named after a man, but after World War I, when large numbers of homeless and helpless, a technique was evolved to give the stateless—a document equivalent to a passport and generally recognized. That was the Nansen passport, named after Fridtjof Nansen whose hundredth anniversary will be celebrated on October 10.

Too few have recognized that perhaps the most frightful result of war is statelessness which to many means homelessness. Villages have disappeared; homes have been burned to the ground; all documents are lost. There is no money. What does one do? Where does he live? Where does he go? Where are his relatives and friends?

To this problem, Fridtjof Nansen devoted his life. A Norwegian, Nansen had gained fame as an explorer. He was the first man to cross Greenland. In 1896, aboard a small ship, the Fram, he set off to reach the North Pole and came closer to it than any man had before him.

Nansen's professions were oceanography and diplomacy. He was the Norwegian Minister to Great Britain and then led a diplomatic mission to the United States. From 1920 until his death, he represented Norway at the League of Nations. It was during those years he devoted himself to the stateless.

War to Nansen was a human not a military problem and it dealt with individual human beings whose lives were suddenly dislocated and disturbed. As Herbert Hoover was concerned with feeding the starving, Nansen sought to find a home for the homeless, to move masses of people who had become what we now-a-days call refugees to some place where they could live normal lives, look after their families, earn a living by their labor and forget the tragic years which uprooted them.

After 1921, when Nansen was appointed High Commissioner for Refugees of the League of Nations, he knew no nationalities, no distinctions between man and man. He only knew that human beings were struggling to survive as persons and that it was his task to help them.

The Nansen passport was accepted by more than 50 governments and many distinguished persons had no other document.

The Nobel Prize was awarded Nansen in 1922 as universal recognition of his labors for the hungry and homeless. There have been too few men like Nansen in our times—too few who lived utterly selfless lives and who devoted themselves wholly to the welfare of those who had been abandoned or for those who could not adjust to the startling changes of this age.

The refugee problem is still with us. All over the world there are refugees from war and revolution and their numbers increase. The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees has taken on Nansen's noble work. Such countries as Australia and Canada, which need population, open their doors to refugees from all European countries, but we shall soon have a problem of African refugees which will not be so readily solvable.

The 100th anniversary of Nansen's birth to be celebrated on October 10 is a good date to give thought to this problem of man's inhumanity to man. It is a time to think this problem out.

War does not only destroy; it cripples; it leaves men and women helpless. Its greatest cost is homelessness and it is that problem that neither the conqueror nor the vanquished can do much about. The conqueror is distrustful. Besides, he usually has contempt for those whom he conquered. Pity is a rare quality. On the other hand, the vanquished is stung by the results of war. Of ten there are marginal peoples, like Armenians, who are wiped out in large numbers by each conqueror, perhaps because they lie on the highroads of an empire.

For the remote, the distant homeless, we may contribute a few dollars to buy food, but that does not solve their problem, for what they require is a home, a hearth for the family, a place to give birth and a place to die with dignity. For what else is there to the life of man? Whether one is a pauper or a millionaire, these are the ultimate requirements of life. Beyond these there are no degrees of advantage. Less than these is not only poverty but penury.

Out of World War I came two men who understood that it was not geography that moved men; it is a smaller unit—the home and the family. These two men were Fridtjof Nansen and Herbert Hoover.

GENE SHERMAN was proceeding peacefully down the Sunset Strip in Beverly Hills when he saw a gray-headed lady of 70 or so peering intently into a doorway. As Sherman hesitated, she tapped his arm and quavered, "Is this place a restaurant or a saloon?"

"It's a saloon, ma'am," Sherman warned her, "and one with an unsavory reputation, too."

"Oh, thank you, young man," said the old lady and—went in.

Inside You and Yours

1:30 a. m. You're awakened by pain in the neighborhood of your calf muscles. Your job—investigate!

1:41 a. m. Everything checks—leg cramps! Fingering suspect sore—clamps up.

3:22 a. m. Still working. Aspirin hasn't.

7:14 a. m. Cramps loosening up. Pain fading.

Do your nights drag like this? Overstrained muscles can tighten into a Charley—horse from your knee to your ankle. You can't move without wincing.

Flat feet or slouched posture can cause this strain. The cure—stand straight with good arch supports.

Working muscles rest every few minutes to let blood flow catch up. Otherwise, trapped breakdown products would irritate raw nerve-endings into typical swimmer's cramps.

Tense minds also tense muscles. Spasm pinches tiny vessels, shutting off blood flow until boom! Swimmer's cramps in bed!

Don't be spastic! Take a relaxing vacation.

If narrowed, hardened arteries wake you, you'll feel the same boring pain on walking. After a few minutes' rest, pain evaporates.

Let gravity help! Place 3" blocks under the headboard of your bed, but remove wheels first. For clotted or varicose veins, elevate the feet to speed the return trip up the leg.

Ask your doctor about medicines to reopen narrowed blood vessels. Whisky—2 ounces if custom and doctor permit—relaxes mind, muscles and vessels.

Nagging neuritis shrinks muscles as pain mounts.

On sweaty, sticky days, gulping down water without salt causes cramps. So does calcium deficiency—but rarely.

Still, extra calcium—with vitamin D—often has a natural muscles-relaxing effect. But don't drown yourself in calcium without your doctor's O. K. You may come up with kidney stones.

Gently stretch the painful spasm. Bend your foot up slowly. Feel how the muscle relaxes. Massage and liniments help, too.

Special streamlined chemicals and old-fashioned quinine sulfate pills (63 grams) relieve painful spasm.

With the right weapon, no one should have to battle for a full night's sleep!

The Business World

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP)—Price cuts here and there emphasize today that the time hasn't yet come for a general upward sweep just because business has recovered from its one year of decline.

Many are finding comfort in the news that some things that go up can still come down.

The 1960 recession failed to set off any general weakening in prices. In fact, taking in services as well as goods and finished products as well as material, the price level managed to rise slightly during the slump.

And now the recovery, although impressive in the industrial production sector, isn't guaranteeing that all prices are going to rise—at least not right away.

Some food prices are due to go up now, but others are likely to ease this fall. Some services seem set to become more costly, but others are leveling off.

Detroit is beginning to announce list prices on its new models. Some are up, but a number are down from last year. The reason is more likely to be competition among the various makes than any clipping of cost corners on the assembly line, where wage scales are about to rise.

Steel prices, regarded as pattern setting by the administration, are still a question. Wage scales go up next week. Steel executives feel that rising production costs and squeezed price margins call for higher prices. But competition is high in this case too.

There is competition within the industry, with lots of capacity to turn out steel products, and with customers still shopping actively for bargains. And there is competition from substitutes.

The cut in the price of aluminum will give pause to makers of steel products that compete with aluminum in many fields—construction, automotive and food cans and other containers.

The price of copper also is under some pressure, with weakness reported in sensitive spot market.

Oil refiners supplying gasoline to Midwest markets have just cut prices for the fifth time in two months, because of oversupply and lots of competition, and the increasing number of smaller cars that use less gas.

One big tire maker has just predicted that prices in that field should hold steady this year, even if rising costs may force hikes in 1962.

Cherry Street Vigilantes

One Philadelphia neighborhood has found an answer to rampaging hordes of robbers in a favorite protective device of early frontier towns before the establishment of law and order. The Cherry Street Vigilantes organized by William Spaw after his home was burglarized, have caught their first outlaw.

More than 100 residents of an area plagued by a high incidence of crime joined in nightly vigil from their doorways, upstairs windows and other surreptitious outposts. Weeks of patient surveillance finally paid off in the capture of a New York city teenager caught breaking into one of the homes in the protected area.

The Business World

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP)—Price cuts here and there emphasize today that the time hasn't yet come for a general upward sweep just because business has recovered from its one year of decline.

Many are finding comfort in the news that some things that go up can still come down.

The 1960 recession failed to set off any general weakening in prices. In fact, taking in services as well as goods and finished products as well as material, the price level managed to rise slightly during the slump.

And now the recovery, although impressive in the industrial production sector, isn't guaranteeing that all prices are going to rise—at least not right away.

Some food prices are due to go up now, but others are likely to ease this fall. Some services seem set to become more costly, but others are leveling off.

Detroit is beginning to announce list prices on its new models. Some are up, but a number are down from last year. The reason is more likely to be competition among the various makes than any clipping of cost corners on the assembly line, where wage scales are about to rise.

Steel prices, regarded as pattern setting by the administration, are still a question. Wage scales go up next week. Steel executives feel that rising production costs and squeezed price margins call for higher prices. But competition is high in this case too.

There is competition within the industry, with lots of capacity to turn out steel products, and with customers still shopping actively for bargains. And there is competition from substitutes.

The cut in the price of aluminum will give pause to makers of steel products that compete with aluminum in many fields—construction, automotive and food cans and other containers.

The price of copper also is under some pressure, with weakness reported in sensitive spot market.

Oil refiners supplying gasoline to Midwest markets have just cut prices for the fifth time in two months, because of oversupply and lots of competition, and the increasing number of smaller cars that use less gas.

One big tire maker has just predicted that prices in that field should hold steady this year, even if rising costs may force hikes in 1962.

The government's consumer price index shows rising prices in used cars, transportation fares, medical fee and home buying costs.

But consumers are assured that in a few more weeks there should be a drop in the price of meats, as the supply increases. If you are a long-time planner, you can be plentiful for Thanksgiving. This year's crop is one fourth larger than last year's. A record supply is waiting in cold storage.

Looking Back in Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO
William Ammer, Pickaway County Prosecuting Attorney, was elected secretary of the Prosecuting Attorneys Association of Ohio.

A local hardware store was sponsoring a laundry class open to the public for improved automatic laundering.

A mail catalogue store was to open here, according to an announcement from company officials.

TEN YEARS AGO
Durward Dowden was named head of a local Rotary Club committee that campaigned for the "cleanup of the Scioto."

Mrs. Emmitt Barnhart was elected regional vice president of the Columbus and South Central Ohio Garden Clubs during the group's convention.

Forty Pickaway County youngsters received special recognition for outstanding work in 4-H Club projects during the year.

High School teachers announced that a different editor would be selected each month for the school's publication, the "Red and Black."

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
The Democrat Party had 28 presiding judges listed for the November election and Republicans had 15 according to Board of Election officials.

Auto Strike Hikes Ohio Idle Claims

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Recent strikes in the automotive industry in the Cleveland area were reflected Wednesday in new claims for unemployment compensation filed in the week ended Sept. 23.

The new claims climbed from 13,019 in the week ended Sept. 16 to 16,398 in the week ended Sept. 23, with most of the increase coming from the Cleveland area.

Continuing claims of those employed one week or more dropped from 80,376 to 78,406.

Officials of the BUC headquarters explained that while strikers themselves may file for unemployment compensation, it does not mean that they will receive any payments. However, there are many non-strikers affected when plants are closed who can collect compensation.

The philosopher Seneca related that units of the Roman army, "hurried to the succor of the colony of Ostia, believing it to be on fire" when they saw Northern Lights hanging low on the horizon.

TOMORROW A New World of Worth from Chevrolet for '62!

'62 Impala Sport Coupe—with a roof line that looks like a convertible's

'62 CHEVROLET Rich new styling with Jet-smooth ride!

Here's everything a car fancier could want. Fresh-minted style that comes to a climax in the sportiest sport coupe you've seen yet. A road-gentling Jet-smooth ride. A new choice of V8 skeddaddle. Rich Body by Fisher interiors. Beauty that's specially built to stay beautiful. Here in '62 is more than ever to please you from the make that pleases most people.

If you've wondered what owning an expensive car is like, here's where you find out—without the expense. Check it over from its clean-thrusting prow to its rakish rear deck. Look inside the deep-well trunk and imagine the mountain of gear it'll gobble. Step through one of those wide-opening doors and plump down on a seat the size of a sofa. Then—head for the open highway. ■ That sittin'-on-satin feeling you get is Chevrolet's famous Jet-smooth ride at work—with a pliant Full Coil spring cushioning at each wheel. The standard six and V8 are triggered to do special things on regular gas, and for real hair-trigger reflexes you have a choice of four optional-at-extra-cost V8's with output all the way up to 409 hp. ■ Hard-working helpers (like the new steel front fender underskirts that provide extra protection against flying stones and corrosive salt) give this '62 its built-for-keeps beauty. Even the heater and defroster come as standard equipment this year. This is the kind of car that will make you feel luxurious all over, and your Chevrolet dealer will be only too happy to show you how easy it is to have one of your own.

CHEVROLET

Corvair Monza Club Coupe

THE '62 CORVAIR MONZA

The car that puts sport in the driver's seat!

Step right up and meet the latest version of the car that's proved its mettle in the fiercest competition going—'62 Corvair. Bigger new brakes team up with Corvair's renowned rear-engine traction for just about the surest footed going on the road. A new Monza Station Wagon makes its debut. And all models sport freshly tailored upholstery inside matched by sassy new styling accents outside.

This jim-dandy's got the stuff that drivers dote on. ■ Backstage you have a standard aluminum air-cooled engine that turns up 80 hp. (or if you like more razzamatazz, one that uncorks 102 hp.). You can pick from a 3-speed Synchro-Mesh transmission, a 4-speed or Corvair Powerglide.* ■ Independent suspension on all four wheels keeps the ride as amiable as ever. Inside, you'll see that some smart-looking things have happened. And you'll also find a heater and defroster, cigarette lighter, dual sunshades, front-door armrests and automatic choke as standard equipment on the 500 Coupe, 700 Coupe and Sedan, Monza Coupe and Sedan, Monza and 700 Station Wagons. ■ There are lots of reasons for liking what's new—and tried and true—in the '62 Corvair. And your dealer's eager to tick 'em off for you. *Optional at extra cost.

Chevy II 300 2-Door Sedan—sensitivity at its Sunday best

HERE'S THE NEW CHEVY II

Modern basic transportation in a totally new line of cars

Here are all solid, time-tested virtues you know you can count on from all the Chevrolet family—plus some surprises you've never seen on any car before. A full line of saucy new-size models, each built a new way for easier service and maintenance. Thrifty? Choice of a frugal 4- or spunky 6-cylinder engine (in most models). Roomy? Sedans seat six solid citizens, bag and baggage. Price? A real pleasant surprise!

This plucky new Chevy II comes about as close as a car can to perpetual motion. Beneath that fetching, fresh-shaped bonnet you'll find the kind of long-lived dependability that has always been Chevrolet's special stock in trade. ■ All nine models (station wagons, a hardtop, even a convertible will soon be available in the lineup) are designed to save you money and service. Major front-end sections, including fenders, bolt on for easy replacement in case of damage. More savings: The heater and defroster are yours as standard equipment. And every Chevy II rides on tough, durable—but ever-so-gentle—Mono-Plate rear springs that flex as a single unit, eliminating the friction of old-fashioned multi-leaf springs. ■ And, maneuverable and sensibly sized as this Chevy II is, it gives you the kind of passenger and packing room that'll make many a "big" car wonder how it's done.

Mrs. H. E. Louis Is Hostess For County Republican Club

Mrs. Herbert E. Louis of New Holland was hostess for a delectable Early Fall Covered Dish Luncheon and Meeting of the Pickaway County Women's Republican Club this week.

Sixty members and guests were present to give the Pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag, led by Mrs. Donald Watt.

Mrs. C. L. Costlow read a prayer, followed by Mrs. J. B. Work who presented minutes of the previous meeting and read communications. Mrs. Wilbur Gillespie gave the treasurer's report, with news regarding the Sunshine Fund.

Mrs. H. O. Caldwell presided at the meeting when arrangements were formulated, with members making definite plans to attend the Republican State and Regional Fall Conference of the Ohio Federation of Republican Women's Organizations, Inc., on Oct. 6.

Mrs. Arthur Swingle and Mrs. C. E. Mahaffey discussed articles, telling of the Government fiscal irresponsibility, as stated by the Honorable Katherine St. George MC, to her constituents of the 28th New York District.

New Club members were received into the organization. Subscriptions were recorded for the Ohio Republican News.

Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Merton Tootle, Mrs. Roy Stewart, Mrs. Allen Tootle, Mrs. T. C. Gookey, Miss Mary Withgott, Miss Margaret Withgott, Mrs. Kenneth Crabb, Mrs. Harry Health, Mrs. Wilbur Gillespie, Mrs. Frank Thatcher, Mrs. Joe Owens, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. T. L. Loose and Mrs. Carl Binns.

The Pickaway County Club members accepted the invitation of Mrs. C. E. Wright, Circleville, to be her guests on Oct. 23.

Friendship Night Observed By Local Chapter 90, OES

Circleville Chapter 90, Order of Eastern Star, was honored with the presence of 95 members and guests Tuesday evening when they met to observe Friendship Night. Purity Chapter 95, New Holland, was the honored chapter.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Elizabeth Dunkel, worthy matron. Prior to the guests introduced were:

Miss Marie L. Hamilton, past grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Ohio; Mrs. Etoile Hiatt, grand organizer of the Grand Chapter of Ohio; Mrs. Lois Henricks, deputy grand matron of District 23 and Mrs. Lois Craig, deputy grand matron of District 27.

Worthy matrons and worthy patrons of other chapters were: Mrs. Dorothy Starkey and Mrs. Roy Starkey, Lockbourne UD Chapter of District 17; Mrs. Mabel Peniston and Mrs. Thomas E. Noble, Purity Chapter 65, New Holland; Mrs. Betty Sperau, Waverly Chapter 99 and Mrs. Helen Pollock, Chillicothe Chapter 419.

Past matrons and past patrons of Circleville Chapter present were: Mrs. Gladys Shepler and Mr. Kenneth Shepler, Junior Past Matron and Jr. Past Patron of Circleville Chapter 90; Mrs. Marie Bennett; Mrs. Anne Collins; Mrs. Muriel Reichelderfer; Mrs. Faye Mahaffey; Mrs. Kathryn Reber; Mrs. Garnet Reichelderfer; Miss Marie Hamilton; Mrs. Marcelyn Evans; Mrs. Geneva Brink; Miss Martha Warner; Mr. Walden Reichelderfer and Mr. Clifford Mahaffey.

Persons who have had Grand Appointments from the Grand Chapter were introduced. They gave the office and year in which they served.

District 23 officers recognized were Mrs. Clara Wilson, president, and Mrs. Garnet Reichelderfer, treasurer.

After the introductions, the worthy matron gave a welcome and read a poem entitled "Life's Symphony", which tied in with the program and Friendship Night.

It was announced by the Ways and Means chairman that the chapter would sponsor the stock sale dinner on October 4.

Members were asked to save and bring their sales tax stamps to the next meeting. The chapter voted a donation to the local Community Chest Fund.

It was announced that the Worthy Grand Matron's cancer research project for the year had reached her goal and at the present there are five research projects. The Chapter voted to donate its Sunshine Fund to the Worthy Grand Matron's Cancer Research.

It was also announced that the local chapter will sponsor a Country Folk Dance on October 28 at the Fairground Coliseum for the Cancer Research benefit.

In conjunction with Friendship Night, the Worthy Matron read a poem entitled "Be A Friend" and then had introduced visiting members from University Chapter 462, Columbus; Purity Chapter 65 New Holland; Lockbourne UD Chapter; Evergreen Chapter 169, Adelphi; Kingston Chapter 411; Waverly Chapter 99; Heber Chapter 62, Williamsport; Parthenia Chapter 124, Baltimore; Chillicothe Chapter 419 and Circleville Chapter 90. The past and present organizers of the different chapters were introduced and Mrs. Elaine Bowman, past organizer and Mrs. Metta Mae Dill, present organizer were present from our own chapter. The members of the District 23 Chorus was also introduced.

It was announced that the local chapter would be the guest chapter at a Friendship Night at the Franklin Chapter on October 3rd. Several local members and officers are planning to attend.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, a musical program entitled "Here Comes The Showboat" was presented. The District Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Pearl Defenbaugh sang "Let There Be Music". Accompanist for the chorus was Mrs. Chestora Peters.

Worthy Patron Walden Reichelderfer, acting as the captain of the Showboat, introduced the following program: Showboat Melodies by the Chorus; Marimba Solos by Mrs. Mabel Peniston of New Holland; The Metta Larks Quartet, composed of Metta Mae Dill, Carolyn Peters, Donna Fosnaugh, and Louise Barr, sang several numbers; Mr. Verle Hiatt presented two solos accompanied by his wife at the organ, Mrs. Etoile Hiatt, Grand Organist of the Grand Chapter; a Clarinet Quartet composed of Susan Hoffines, Lynn Noecker, Patty Collins and Jackie Lindsey of Walnut Township School played two numbers and Mrs. Joan Pettit accompanied by Mrs. Elaine Bowman presented two solos.

At the conclusion of the program, a delicious repast was enjoyed in the Red Room by members and guests. Mrs. Edith Muse and committee were in charge of the food.

The next meeting will be held on Oct. 10 and will honor all past matrons and past patrons of the local chapter.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Think It Over Well, Widow

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow, 29 years old, and the mother of four children. I am the sole support of my children, and have been for four years.

My problem is a very handsome and wonderful young man who is only 19. He looks older, and has a very good job. He wants to marry me. I have known him a year, and I think the world of him but, Abby, I haven't a thing to offer him but my troubles. He knows this, but won't take no for an answer. He says he loves me and doesn't care what anyone thinks, and he is camping on my doorstep. My children adore him. I think it would be unfair to him to marry him. I love him in a way, but am—

CONFUSED
DEAR ABBY: If you love him—don't marry him yet. He is only a boy. Give him a chance to mature and if, in another year, you both feel the same—well, perhaps it will work.

DEAR ABBY: I am told thalid ladies do not shake hands. Is that correct? When I meet someone, my hand automatically goes out, whether it is a man or a woman I am greeting. I can't find the answer in an etiquette book, but I want to do the proper thing. Can you help me?

A LADY
DEAR LADY: Ladies DO shake hands. Both with other ladies and with gentlemen.

DEAR ABBY: After raising my son, and seeing him through college on the start of a promising career I have the sorrow of watching him choose a girl of different religion, background and education. So far I have only shown "mild disapproval." Should I do more? I am afraid of forcing too wrong results.

DEAR ABBY: If you have given your son your best guidance, there is nothing you can do. You are wise not to snipe at the girl. That usually boomerangs.

DEAR ABBY: Since I have seen all sorts of unusual problems in your column perhaps you'll use this, as it is indeed my biggest problem. I'm from Luxemburg and, invariably, when I am in the State, people will say, "Oh yes, GERMANY!" Now Luxemburg is a small country, and it is bad enough that people don't know where it is, but they mistake it for a part of a nation which, twice in 20 years, has invaded it. Mrs. H. E. Louis Is Hostess For County Republican Club

Mrs. Herbert E. Louis of New Holland was hostess for a delectable Early Fall Covered Dish Luncheon and Meeting of the Pickaway County Women's Republican Club this week.

Sixty members and guests were present to give the Pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag, led by Mrs. Donald Watt.

Mrs. C. L. Costlow read a prayer, followed by Mrs. J. B. Work who presented minutes of the previous meeting and read communications. Mrs. Wilbur Gillespie gave the treasurer's report, with news regarding the Sunshine Fund.

Mrs. H. O. Caldwell presided at the meeting when arrangements were formulated, with members making definite plans to attend the Republican State and Regional Fall Conference of the Ohio Federation of Republican Women's Organizations, Inc., on Oct. 6.

Mrs. Arthur Swingle and Mrs. C. E. Mahaffey discussed articles, telling of the Government fiscal irresponsibility, as stated by the Honorable Katherine St. George MC, to her constituents of the 28th New York District.

New Club members were received into the organization. Subscriptions were recorded for the Ohio Republican News.

Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Merton Tootle, Mrs. Roy Stewart, Mrs. Allen Tootle, Mrs. T. C. Gookey, Miss Mary Withgott, Miss Margaret Withgott, Mrs. Kenneth Crabb, Mrs. Harry Health, Mrs. Wilbur Gillespie, Mrs. Frank Thatcher, Mrs. Joe Owens, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. T. L. Loose and Mrs. Carl Binns.

The Pickaway County Club members accepted the invitation of Mrs. C. E. Wright, Circleville, to be her guests on Oct. 23.

Friendship Night Observed By Local Chapter 90, OES

Circleville Chapter 90, Order of Eastern Star, was honored with the presence of 95 members and guests Tuesday evening when they met to observe Friendship Night. Purity Chapter 95, New Holland, was the honored chapter.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Elizabeth Dunkel, worthy matron. Prior to the guests introduced were:

Miss Marie L. Hamilton, past grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Ohio; Mrs. Etoile Hiatt, grand organist of the Grand Chapter of Ohio; Mrs. Lois Henricks, deputy grand matron of District 23 and Mrs. Lois Craig, deputy grand matron of District 27.

Worthy matrons and worthy patrons of other chapters were: Mrs. Dorothy Starkey and Mrs. Roy Starkey, Lockbourne UD Chapter of District 17; Mrs. Mabel Peniston and Mrs. Thomas E. Noble, Purity Chapter 65, New Holland; Mrs. Betty Sperau, Waverly Chapter 99 and Mrs. Helen Pollock, Chillicothe Chapter 419.

Past matrons and past patrons of Circleville Chapter present were: Mrs. Gladys Shepler and Mr. Kenneth Shepler, Junior Past Matron and Jr. Past Patron of Circleville Chapter 90; Mrs. Marie Bennett; Mrs. Anne Collins; Mrs. Muriel Reichelderfer; Mrs. Faye Mahaffey; Mrs. Kathryn Reber; Mrs. Garnet Reichelderfer; Miss Marie Hamilton; Mrs. Marcelyn Evans; Mrs. Geneva Brink; Miss Martha Warner; Mr. Walden Reichelderfer and Mr. Clifford Mahaffey.

Persons who have had Grand Appointments from the Grand Chapter were introduced. They gave the office and year in which they served.

District 23 officers recognized were Mrs. Clara Wilson, president, and Mrs. Garnet Reichelderfer, treasurer.

After the introductions, the worthy matron gave a welcome and read a poem entitled "Life's Symphony", which tied in with the program and Friendship Night.

It was announced by the Ways and Means chairman that the chapter would sponsor the stock sale dinner on October 4.

Members were asked to save and bring their sales tax stamps to the next meeting. The chapter voted a donation to the local Community Chest Fund.

It was announced that the Worthy Grand Matron's cancer research project for the year had reached her goal and at the present there are five research projects. The Chapter voted to donate its Sunshine Fund to the Worthy Grand Matron's Cancer Research.

It was also announced that the local chapter will sponsor a Country Folk Dance on October 28 at the Fairground Coliseum for the Cancer Research benefit.

In conjunction with Friendship Night, the Worthy Matron read a poem entitled "Be A Friend" and then had introduced visiting members from University Chapter 462, Columbus; Purity Chapter 65 New Holland; Lockbourne UD Chapter; Evergreen Chapter 169, Adelphi; Kingston Chapter 411; Waverly Chapter 99; Heber Chapter 62, Williamsport; Parthenia Chapter 124, Baltimore; Chillicothe Chapter 419 and Circleville Chapter 90. The past and present organists of the different chapters were introduced and Mrs. Elaine Bowman, past organist and Mrs. Metta Mae Dill, present organist were present from our own chapter. The members of the District 23 Chorus was also introduced.

It was announced that the local chapter would be the guest chapter at a Friendship Night at the Franklin Chapter on October 3rd. Several local members and officers are planning to attend.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, a musical program entitled "Here Comes The Showboat" was presented. The District Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Pearl Defenbaugh sang "Let There Be Music". Accompanist for the chorus was Mrs. Chestora Peters.

Worthy Patron Walden Reichelderfer, acting as the captain of the Showboat, introduced the following program: Showboat Melodies by the Chorus; Marimba Solos by Mrs. Mabel Peniston of New Holland; The Metta Larks Quartet, composed of Metta Mae Dill, Carolyn Peters, Donna Fosnaugh, and Louise Barr, sang several numbers; Mr. Verle Hiatt presented two solos accompanied by his wife at the organ, Mrs. Etoile Hiatt, Grand Organist of the Grand Chapter; a Clarinet Quartet composed of Susan Hoffines, Lynn Noecker, Patty Collins and Jackie Lindsey of Walnut Township School played two numbers and Mrs. Joan Pettit accompanied by Mrs. Elaine Bowman presented two solos.

At the conclusion of the program, a delicious repast was enjoyed in the Red Room by members and guests. Mrs. Edith Muse and committee were in charge of the food.

The next meeting will be held on Oct. 10 and will honor all past matrons and past patrons of the local chapter.

NOTICE OF SALE OF BONDS

Sealed bids will be received by the undersigned, the Auditor of the County of Pickaway, Ohio, herein referred to as the County, at his office in the County Court House, Circleville, Ohio, until 11:00 a. m., Eastern Standard Time, on the 2nd day of October, 1961, at which time the bids will be publicly opened and read, for the purchase of bonds of the County in the aggregate amount of $45,395.00, authorized by res-olution passed September 5, 1961.

Said bonds shall be dated the 1st day of October, 1961, shall be in the denomi-nation of $1,000.00 each, except bond No. 1, which is of the denomination of $1,395.00, shall draw interest, payable semi-annually on the first days of April and October of each year be-ginning April 1, 1962, at the rate of 4 per cent per annum. Anyone desiring to do so may present a bid for said bonds based upon their bearing a dif-ferent rate of interest, but not in excess of 6 per cent, provided that where a fractional interest rate is bid, such fraction shall be one-eighth of one per cent or a multiple thereof.

Said bonds mature as follows: $2,395.00 on the 1st day of October, 1963; $2,000.00 on the 1st day of October in each of the years 1964 to 1972, both inclusive; $3,000.00 on the 1st day of Oc-tober in each of the odd numbered years 1973 to 1981, both inclusive; and $2,000.00 on the 1st day of October in each of the even numbered years 1974 to 1982, both inclusive.

Said bonds are issued for the purpose of improving Knollwood Village County Sewer District by the construction of eight inch diameter sewers, manholes and a sewerage treatment plant.

Said bonds are payable at the Sec-ond National Bank, Circleville, Ohio, and are supported by limited taxes and special assessments.

Said bids will be promptly considered, and said bonds will be sold to the high-est bidder offering the low est in-terest rate at not less than par and ac-crued interest. The low est interest rate will be determined by calculating the total interest to be paid at maturity at the rate bid and deducting there-from the pre m i u m bid. If each of two or more bids is the highest bid offering the lowest interest rate, the bonds will be awarded on such one of said highest bids as is chosen by lot. All bids must be accompanied by cash, a bank cashier's or official check, or a certified check on a solvent bank (other than the bidder) payable to the County, or any combination there of in the amount of one per cent of the par amount of the bonds bid for, upon condition that if the bid is ac-cepted, the bidder will receive and pay for such bonds in accordance with the terms and conditions of the bonds, and in the event said condition is not the terms and provisions of this notice, fulfilled.

Bids shall be sealed and endorsed "Bid for Knollwood Village County Se-wer District, Pickaway County, Ohio, Bonds."

The proceeding for this issue have been taken under the supervision of Bricker, Evatt, Barton, Eckler & Nie-hoff, Bond Attorneys, Columbus, Ohio, whose unqualified approving opinion will be furnished by the County to the successful bidder without expense.

A complete transcript of Proceed-ings and the printed bonds will be fur-nished by the County, together with the usual closing papers.

In the event the interest on said bonds should by act of Congress or oth-erwise become subject to Federal Income Taxes prior to delivery, the successful bidder may refuse to accept delivery and in such event his deposit which accompanied his bid shall be returned without interest.

It is contemplated that the bond issu-ing authority of the County will meet at 2:00 o'clock P. M., on the 2nd day of October, 1961, to consider said bids and make an award.

The bonds will be delivered at the of-fice of the undersigned, or such other place as may be agreed upon with the successful bidder, if outside of the lim-its of the County, the bidder shall pay expense of delivery at that place.

Before making tender of the bonds at the place of delivery, the County shall give written notice to the successful bidder not later than the third day before the proposed tender, of the fact that the bonds, transcript, no-litigation certificate, and approving opin-ion will be available for delivery and giving the dates and hour for the tender at the said place of delivery, provided how ever that nothing herein con-tained shall prevent the making of a mutually agreeable arrangement for the delivery of the bonds either at the place fixed by delivery or else-where.

If such notice has not been given or waived by the successful bidder and the bonds, transcript, no - litigation certificate and approving opinion are not available for delivery to the suc-cessful bidder at such place of deliv-ery on or before 12:00 o'clock noon of the 20th calendar day after the day fixed for the receipt of bids, and the successful bidder shall not be in de-fault of any of his obligations, he shall have the right thereafter and so long as no such tender by the County shall yet have been made, to cancel the contract of purchase; such right to be exercised by delivering to the undersigned or to his office dur-ing business hours written notice of such cancellation. Such bidder shall thereupon be entitled to the return of the deposit which accompanied his bid and it shall be returned to him immedi-ately.

The right is reserved to reject bids.

Five Judges Named For Mrs. Ohio Test

Two newspaper people, a form-er Ohio "first lady", a television personality and the owner of a professional football team make up the panel of five judges who will select a new "Mrs. Ohio" at the state finals of the annual "Mrs. America" contest in Colum-bus Nov. 1 and 2.

The two men and three women, whose selection was announced by Paul D. Millar, business promotion coordinator for the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. and state Mrs. America con-test chairman, in Columbus today, are: Mrs. C. William O'Neill of Co-lumbus, wife of the present Ohio Supreme Court Justice and former Ohio governor; Arthur Modell of Cleveland, president of the Cleveland Browns National Pro-fessional League football team; Mrs. Patricia J. Collar of Lima, woman's editor of the Lima News, William J. Oertel of Colum-bus, executive director of the Ohio Newspaper Assn. and manager of Ohio Newspaper Services Inc. and Paige Palmer, Cleveland televi-sion personality.

A record number of American tourists arrived in Greece during the first three months of this year. The figure — 11,680 — compares with 9,765 Americans who visited Greece in the first quarter of 1960.

Child Welfare Board Legal Opinion Given

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — War-ren County Prosecutor Stanley E. Kolb has been given an attorney general's opinion that a person cannot simultaneously be chair-man of a county's child welfare board and administrator of the county's school for retarded chil-dren.

This is because the school ad-ministrator should be a subordin-ate to the board, which appoints him, Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy ad-vised Kolb.

MERCURY COMET
smartly ahead of the compact crowd

MERCURY MONTEREY
the best-looking buy for the big-car man

HIGHLIGHTS: COMPACT MERCURY COMET. Talk value and you're talking Mercury COMET. It's the compact with the extras that make the difference. Take beauty. This is the only compact with fine-car styling. You get extra room plus a smoother ride (up to 7.5-inch longer wheelbase than other compacts). Extra trunk space for as many as six extra suitcases. Extra savings on oil and upkeep. This year you can drive 6,000 miles between oil changes. A new type anti-freeze, anti-rust coolant lasts two years or 30,000 miles. Extra resale value, too (best record of any compact). The price? With or below most compacts.

HIGHLIGHTS: BIG, LUXURIOUS MERCURY MONTEREY. This is Mercury's finest car. The very top of the line. It is specially built for the big-car man—with those big extra values a man likes. More room than other cars near its price—for long legs and big families. An extra-long wheelbase (120") for that solid, luxury-car "feel." A smoother, quieter ride—the result of exclusive Cushion-Link Suspension. A wide engine choice—"6" or three V-8's. Plus the kind of savings that really cut up-keep. Routine service is needed only twice a year (at 6,000- to 30,000-mile intervals)! The price? Well within the popu-lar-price range.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Karl H. Presser has been appointed president of the Buckeye Foundry Co., one of Southwestern Ohio's largest manufacturers of gray iron and alloy cast iron for the machine tool industry.

NOTICE OF SALE OF BONDS

Sealed bids will be received by the undersigned, Auditor of the County of Pickaway, Ohio, hereinafter referred to as the County, at his office in the County Court House, Circleville, Ohio, until 11:00 a. m., Eastern Standard Time, on the 2nd day of October, 1961, at which time the bids will be publicly opened and read, for the purchase of bonds of the County in the aggregate amount of $45,395.00, authorized by resolution passed September 5, 1961.

Said bonds shall be dated the 1st day of October, 1961, shall be in the denomination of $1,000.00 each, except bond No. 1 which is of the denomination of $1,395.00, shall draw interest, payable semi-annually on the first days of April and October of each year beginning April 1, 1962, at the rate of 4 percent per annum. Anyone desiring to do so may present a bid for said bonds based upon their bearing a different rate of interest, but not in excess of 6 percent, provided that where a fractional interest rate is bid, such fraction shall be one-eighth of one percent or a multiple thereof.

Said bonds mature as follows: $2,395.00 on the 1st day of October, 1963; $2,000.00 on the 1st day of October in each of the years 1964 to 1972, both inclusive; $3,000.00 on the 1st day of October in each of the odd numbered years 1973 to 1981, both inclusive; and $2,000.00 on the 1st day of October in each of the even numbered years 1974 to 1982, both inclusive.

Said bonds are issued for the purpose of improving Knollwood Village County Sewer District by the construction of eight inch diameter sewers, manholes and a sewerage treatment plant.

Said bonds are payable at the Second National Bank, Circleville, Ohio, and are supported by limited taxes and special assessments.

Said bids will be promptly considered, and said bonds will be sold to the highest bidder offering the lowest interest rate at not less than par and accrued interest. The lowest interest rate will be determined by calculating the total interest to be paid at maturity at the rate bid and deducting therefrom the premium bid. If each of two or more bids is the highest bid offering the lowest interest rate, the bonds will be awarded on such one of said highest bids as is chosen by lot. All bids must be accompanied by cash, a bank cashier's or official check, or a certified check on a solvent bank (other than the bidder) payable to the County, or any combination thereof in the amount of one percent of the par amount of the bonds bid for, upon condition that if the bid is accepted, the bidder will receive and pay for such bonds in accordance with or forfeit the same as liquidated damages in the event said condition is not the terms and provisions of this notice, fulfilled.

Bids shall be sealed and endorsed "Bid for Knollwood Village County Sewer District, Pickaway County, Ohio, Bonds."

The proceeding for this issue have been taken under the supervision of Bricker, Evans, Barton, Eckert & Niehoff, Bond Attorneys, Columbus, Ohio, whose unqualified approving opinion will be furnished by the County to the successful bidder without expense. A complete transcript of Proceedings and the printed bonds will be furnished by the County, together with the usual closing papers.

In the event the interest on said bonds should by act of Congress or otherwise become subject to Federal Income Taxes prior to delivery, the successful bidder may refuse to accept delivery and in such event his deposit which accompanied his bid shall be returned without interest.

It is contemplated that the bond issuing authority of the County will meet at 2:00 o'clock P. M., on the 2nd day of October, 1961, to consider said bids and make an award.

The bonds will be delivered at the office of the undersigned, or such other place as may be agreed upon with the successful bidder, if outside of the limits of the County, the bidder shall pay expense of delivery at that place.

Before making tender of the bonds at the place of delivery, the County shall give written notice to the successful bidder not later than the third day before the proposed tender, of the fact that the bonds, transcript, no-litigation certificate, and approving opinion will be available for delivery and giving the date and hour for the tender at the said place of delivery, provided however that nothing herein contained shall prevent the making of a mutually agreeable arrangement for the delivery of the bonds either at the place fixed by delivery or elsewhere.

If such notice has not been given or waived by the successful bidder and the bonds, transcript, no-litigation certificate and approving opinion are not available for delivery to the successful bidder at such place of delivery on or before 12:00 o'clock noon of the 30th calendar day after the day fixed for the receipt of bids, and the successful bidder shall not be in default of any of his obligations, he shall have the right thereafter and so long as no such tender by the County shall yet have been made, to cancel the contract of purchase; such right to be exercised by delivering to the undersigned or to his office during business hours written notice of such cancellation. Such bidder shall thereupon be entitled to the return of the deposit which accompanied his bid and it shall be returned to him immediately.

The right is reserved to reject bids.

Marvin H. Rhoades, Auditor
Pickaway County, Ohio
Sept. 7, 14, 21, 28.

Hanging Baskets - Symbols Of an Era Long Vanished

HANGING BASKET — Pictured here are the hanging baskets that have graced the Allen porch for more than 40 years. At the right is Miss Doris Allen with a bucket and the tin cup with which she waters the baskets. Relaxing in the porch swing with a copy of The Circleville Herald is her sister, Miss Bernice Allen, who has taught sociology at Millsaps College, Jackson, Miss., for the last several years.

Vacationers frequently return from their continental tours or from Canada filled with enthusiasm for flower boxes and hanging baskets. They are positively lyrical about the decorative effects attained.

There was a time in the United States when flower boxes and hanging baskets were in vogue throughout the length and breadth of the land. And they did indeed add considerably to our decorative scheme.

It was during the pre-World War I era when America's favorite sport was sitting in the swing on the front porch. At that time flower boxes and hanging baskets were the personal concern of every housewife in the nation.

Only occasionally now are hanging baskets to be seen. America has switched from the front porch to the backyard patio. For the most part the front porch is vacant if it is there at all.

BUT at one Pickaway County farm home, at least, hanging baskets are still a summer tradition.

Miss Doris Allen, Route 1, Kingston, has her hanging baskets out by Decoration Day. After the first frost they are emptied and placed in the woodshed for winter.

Doris Allen says she cannot remember when this tradition was instituted — long before she was born, however. She recalls as a child that her mother would plant and hang the baskets.

The baskets are actually crocks of pottery with three holes equidistant around the edge. Wires are inserted through the holes and the basket hung by

Hedges Entry Stumps Experts

It's rather fun for a gardener to stump the experts.

That is what Mrs. C. W. Hedges did at the Scioto Valley Dahlia Show recently when she used a certain plant for the structural line in an arrangement.

The material was spikey with small clover-like seedpods along the stem. The stem and pods were green tinged with purple.

Mrs. Hedges had combined this plant with cerise dahlias.

NOBODY recognized the plant. And practically everybody at the show was asking about it.

When we called Roberta Hedges she laughed. The plant was liatris or Kansas gayfeather.

It seems that gayfeather does not always have these seedpods although Mrs. Hedges says that hers does. Anyway when liatris does have seedpods it's a handsome plant to use for line material.

means of these wires.

Miss Allen has planted the vining asparagus Sprengeri Coleus, wandering Jew with deep red foliage and petunias in her baskets.

Miss Allen recalls that many hanging baskets were really baskets constructed of wire and lined with used crockery containers.

MISS ALLEN believes it was because of the fact the men, whose job it was to round up the moss, were not 100 per cent cooperative. Later the crocks became so popular they could be picked up at any store in almost any town. Now they are very difficult to find.

In tribute to a past era there is a swing, too, on the Allen front porch.

The hanging baskets are Miss Allen's one concession to fancy gardening. Since their brother's death, she and her sister, Miss Bernice, manage their 248-acre farm. Beside the grain growing which they supervise they feed a dozen head of cattle, several of which they milk, and raise chickens. Any extra time they have is spent in the vegetable garden.

"We have to eat," Doris Allen remarks crisply. Their small but adequate vegetable patch with a row of grapes and several rhubarb plants is not in any sense of the word hobby gardening. It is rather, Miss Allen and her sister feel, an essential part of life on a farm. They can or freeze the garden surplus.

At its peak it's a tidy, pleasant garden — for Doris Allen allows herself the luxury of a couple of rows of zinnias and marigolds. She and her sister both like flowers but there is small time for them in their schedule of hard work.

SOME of the plants in the hanging baskets winter over in the house. The asparagus Sprengeri is potted up for the house. The coleus and wandering Jew are slipped and the slips rooted in water. Miss Allen says she always buys her petunias plants because they are difficult to raise from seed.

Miss Allen and her sister do not spend too much time on flowers but the Allen place has its charm. One enters through a little gate in the white picket fence. At the frontyard corners are two old lilac bushes beautiful in season.

The evergreens have long since grown into towering trees. Between the sidewalk and house is a planting of false dragonhead and purple phlox. The planting was introduced by Miss Allen's mother, the late Mrs. Ted Allen.

A few altheas, a Dr. Van Fleet rose, a Paul Scarlett rose an outstanding specimen of smoke bush, a neatly clipped lawn — that's the Allen farm home.

There are other ornamentals like the hydrangea now blooming and the row of peonies in front of the fence. The peonies stick their heads between the pickets occasionally.

There's a planting of red monardas in front of the red woodshed. All the plant material is old.

THERE is an austere New England charm about the Allen home. Change is accepted if it is inevitable. Up until 10 years ago the Allens had never bought a pound of flour. They exchanged wheat for flour until the mill closed down.

The family mailbox is the one put up by their father when the town of Kingston first instituted rural free delivery.

Until their brother's death this spring they separated milk, sold cream and bucket-fed calves.

The Allen place is an old farm handed down from their great grandfather, Warren, and their grandfather, Allen. The Allen sisters are the last descendants in this area of Abraham Monet, Revolutionary War hero who came to Pickaway County in 1798. They are also descendants of Tighman Warren who was the son of a Revolutionary War soldier killed in the Battle of Monmouth.

Change comes to the Allen home, too. But the porch swing, the hanging baskets, the towering evergreens, the row of old fashioned peonies and the big lilac bushes tell a pleasant story of another era — one when all America enjoyed sitting on the front porch.

Identification Of Plant Still Is Mystery

Calling county botanists! Virgil Courtright, Stoutsville, disagrees with the identification of the spectacular six foot annual with the spikes of red flowers.

We had identified it to our own satisfaction as lobelia, Cardinalis. Mrs. Hazel Harden, sister of Mrs. Orla Dresbach, also figured this unusual Stoutsville plant was the same flower Victor Reiss described in his recent column.

Virgil Courtright, a botanist and horticulturist in his own right, insists that although the flower fits the description in some ways the leaf and the manner of growth is not that of the red lobelia.

The leaves of the Stoutsville plant are ferny and almost hair-like-very fine. They are not at all like the coarse lobelia leaf.

SO WHAT is it? In Stoutsville it is known as cypress plant. It hailed from Indiana. Stoutsville folks would like to know what this plant really is.

At any rate, Mrs. Frank LeRoy who brought the seeds of this mystery plant to this county has done gardeners here a favor. And it's hoped that the plant will reseed itself and that others beside Stoutsville gardeners may enjoy its beauty.

Plant Sale Scheduled

Pickaway Garden Club
Eyes Annual Event

Indoor gardeners who wish to add to their collection of houseplants will have the opportunity to do so, according to Mrs. Theodore Huston who will head the plant sale at the Pumpkin Show flower show again.

Pickaway County Garden Club members are busy re-potting and dividing houseplants for the sale. Mrs. Huston says there will be African violets, philodendron, peperomia, ferns, vines and cacti.

The plant sale will be staged in one corner of the Hill Implement Co. on E. Franklin St. where the flower show will again be held.

Mrs. Huston says club members are rooting sultanias, begonias and coleus which they will pot for the sale.

Perennial plants, shrubs, iris and bulbs of all sorts will be welcome merchandise for the plant sale.

Mrs. Huston and her committee will be on hand to receive the plants from Wednesday morning on.

Mrs. Trego Is Fond of Lavenders

Mrs. Allen Trego, S. Scioto St., reports that her 3-year-old Lavender Girl rose is beautiful but tricky.

The first year it was planted in front of her house and was lovely in the morning but wilted in the full heat of the afternoon sun.

The next year she planted it in back of the house. It only bloomed a short time.

The third spring she moved all her roses to the other side of her back yard where they receive full morning sun but are shaded in the afternoon. The results are very fine. Every rose bloomed beautifully including her Peace.

FOR special color effect, Mrs. Trego is thinking of moving white roses near Lavender Girl.

Incidentally, Mrs. Trego is very fond of lavender and has these flowers blooming at different times during the year. Among these was a lavender dahlia.

She thinks she may go all out some day and have strictly lavender corners.

CERTAIN BLOOM — If there is one thing sure in the world of gardening it is this plant. Plant a bulb in the fall and the following spring you'll have a flower. The blossom is already sleeping in the bulb when you plant it. Time, sunshine and moisture will bring it into flower.

Hanging Baskets - Symbols Of an Era Long Vanished

HANGING BASKET — Pictured here are the hanging baskets that have graced the Allen porch for more than 40 years. At the right is Miss Doris Allen with a bucket and the tin cup with which she waters the baskets. Relaxing in the porch swing with a copy of The Circleville Herald is her sister, Miss Bernice Allen, who has taught sociology at Millsaps College, Jackson, Miss., for the last several years.

Vacationers frequently return from their continental tours or from Canada filled with enthusiasm for flower boxes and hanging baskets. They are positively lyrical about the decorative effects attained.

There was a time in the United States when flower boxes and hanging baskets were in vogue throughout the length and breadth of the land. And they did indeed add considerably to our decorative scheme.

It was during the pre-World War I era when America's favorite sport was sitting in the swing on the front porch. At that time flower boxes and hanging baskets were the personal concern of every housewife in the nation.

Only occasionally now are hanging baskets to be seen. America has switched from the front porch to the backyard patio. For the most part the front porch is vacant if it is there at all.

BUT at one Pickaway County farm home, at least, hanging baskets are still a summer tradition.

Miss Doris Allen, Route 1, Kingston, has her hanging baskets out by Decoration Day. After the first frost they are emptied and placed in the woodshed for winter.

Doris Allen says she cannot remember when this tradition was instituted — long before she was born, however. She recalls as a child that her mother would plant and hang the baskets.

The baskets are actually crocks of pottery with three holes equidistant around the edge. Wires are inserted through the holes and the basket hung by means of these wires.

Miss Allen has planted the vining asparagus Sprengeri Coleus, wandering Jew with deep red foliage and petunias in her baskets.

Miss Allen recalls that many hanging baskets were really baskets constructed of wire and lined with used crockery containers.

MISS ALLEN believes it was because of the fact the men, whose job it was to round up the moss, were not 100 per cent cooperative. Later the crocks became so popular they could be picked up at any store in almost any town. Now they are very difficult to find.

In tribute to a past era there is a swing, too, on the Allen front porch. The hanging baskets are Miss Allen's one concession to fancy gardening. Since their brother's death, she and her sister, Miss Bernice, manage their 248-acre farm. Beside the grain growing which they supervise they feed a dozen head of cattle, several of which they milk, and raise chickens. Any extra time they have is spent in the vegetable garden.

"We have to eat," Doris Allen remarks crisply. Their small but adequate vegetable patch with a row of grapes and several rhubarb plants is not in any sense of the word hobby gardening. It is rather, Miss Allen and her sister feel, an essential part of life on a farm. They can or freeze the garden surplus.

Hedges Entry Stumps Experts

It's rather fun for a gardener to stump the experts.

That is what Mrs. C. W. Hedges did at the Scioto Valley Dahlia Show recently when she used a certain plant for the structural line in an arrangement.

The material was spikey with small clover-like seedpods along the stem. The stem and pods were green tinged with purple.

Mrs. Hedges had combined this plant with cerise dahlias.

NOBODY recognized the plant. And practically everybody at the show was asking about it.

When we called Roberta Hedges she laughed. The plant was liatris or Kansas gayfeather.

It seems that gayfeather does not always have these seedpods although Mrs. Hedges says that hers does. Anyway when liatris does have seedpods it's a handsome plant to use for line material.

Garden Gossip

Mrs. C. W. Hedges of near Robtown won eight blue ribbons, four red ribbons and a white one in the artistic division of the Scioto Valley Dahlia Show held recently at the Ross County Fairgrounds.

Mrs. Hedges made one entry in the specimen classes and won a blue ribbon on the one entry.

Gardeners wondered where the very beautiful dahlia specimens could have come from when the first two weeks in September were so ferocious on dahlias around here. Twixt the heat, the grasshoppers and the dry spell, most local dahlia growers were having a rough time salvaging flowers for the show.

Roberta Hedges had some of her dahlias planted near the sheep barn where they were shaded. These stood the September heat quite well.

DAHLIAS are a man's flower and rightly so. There is always the digging, the staking and the goodness knows what else to do in raising dahlias.

We were interested in how exhibitors had used wooden wedges to hold the dahlia stems in place in the milk bottles. Milk bottles seem to be standard equipment at dahlia shows. They are fine to display the heavy headed thick stemmed flowers.

Mrs. Stanton Kapp who had come from West Union with her husband to see the dahlia show says green styrofoam is also good for holding dahlias in place.

Mrs. Kapp who is a cousin of Ruth Athey was asking about Circleville. The Kapps are enthusiasts who specialize in small and medium sized dahlias.

Of the lavender dahlia varieties were Blue Light, Blue River, Doge and Commando. These were all eight inches or more.

Bowen's Beauty, a dahlia developed by C. H. Bowen, Chillicothe, was on display. This is a big red dahlia and is currently growing in New York trial gardens.

HARRY WALDEN wanted to know when we had become gourmets the other day when we stopped for gas. We asked him what he meant. He said we had about a ton of grasshoppers under the hood.

And speaking of grasshoppers they are everywhere. They do not stop at foliage but seem to relish flowers as well.

When somebody brought us a stalk of Arthur Wall's 40-inch tuberose, lo and behold the grasshoppers had eaten into one of the tuberoses. Wall lives in Ashville.

Corilla Pontius is worried about flowers for Pumpkin Show. But the flower show chairman, Mrs. Guy Campbell, is not at all concerned. "There'll always be flowers," says Vangie. I don't know where they come from, but we'll have a flower show."

Actually ingenious arrangers do not need flowers. Very frequently "Best of Show" has few or no flowers at all.

There's a bumblebee's nest in the roof of our porch. The bees apparently keep a sentinel on guard because there is always one bee flying around.

YOU either ignore the bees or do a right lively battle with the sentinel on guard. In the family we ignore the bees and nobody's been stung.

A visitor killed a bee the other day after an exciting battle. My granddaughter, who is five, looked sadly at the dead bee and said reproachfully to the visitor. "The bumblebees have been so kind to us."

The swallows have gone. But every day or two some new ones appear. One little fellow was left behind, but I presume he left with the new migration.

Last year there was a pure white swallow with a flock of migrating birds. We looked for him this year but did not see him.

But speaking of albinos there's a white thistle up the road. All the flowers on the plant are white.

Mrs. William Cook says they had a seedling Paulownia tree come up in their roofless barn. She said the youngsters called it a beanstalk because it grew so fantastically fast. They have young Paulownia trees come up around the parent tree but they seem to be weak and do not live long.

MRS. HERMAN Davis brought over a scabiosa blossom for me to identify. It had come up where she showed her package of mixed seeds.

Mixed seeds are sometimes hard to identify and it's frustrating not to know what you're growing.

Florence Fetherolf's variegated hydrangea which is frequently so beautiful at this time of year is a complete failure with no flowers at all.

We guess everybody had weed problems this summer, even Ed Ingram of Stringtown. Visitors were teasing him because in the very time we announced in our column that Ingram never had that first weed, he was having weed problems.

All I can say is that there weren't any weeds when I visited the Ingram garden.

Everytime I go to see Mildred Petty she shows me a new lupine that has weathered the summer. I maintain that lupines will not thrive in Pickaway County.

KEEP your eye on the Brehmer lawn. It's been treated with Erase which kills all vegetation. But in five days, a lawn so treated may be reseeded.

The moth muellein seeds which I brought from the pasture and sowed in my seed bed are up and growing. I hope that mother muellein is perennial.

Mrs. J. O. Eagleson and Mrs. Ed Fetherolf ought to be good friends. Mrs. Eagleson's always giving starts of things to people. And Florence Fetherolf can always coax slips and seeds to grow. Mrs. Eagleson gave me her Bocconia Cordata seeds one year. The bocconia is growing and blooming now.

The rumour is going around that one enthusiastic arranger ordered $20 worth of silica jells so she could try out the new flower drying process.

Everybody's wondering who's the rich arranger that can spend all that money on drying flowers.

Cereus Blooms At Willisons

A night blooming cereus will bloom only when it has considerable age, according to some experts.

Mrs. Robert Willison, Route 4, Circleville, may consider herself lucky. The night blooming cereus which she has owned for only three weeks bloomed last Thursday night.

The big plant was given to Mrs. Willison by her mother who lives in Woodsfield. And her mother had received it from a friend only the day before she gave it to Mrs. Willison.

Mrs. Willison noticed a bud forming about a week after she brought the plant home.

THE night blooming cereus was on the Willison patio and the entire neighborhood was in a flurry of excitement about the blossom. It began to open about 6 p. m. and at 9 p. m. was almost fully open.

Mrs. Willison said it was apparently the only bud the plant had. She reported that the blossom was fantastically beautiful.

Cuba Reorganizes Army into 3 Parts

HAVANA (AP)—Cuba has reorganized its army into three main corps as a defense against new invasions, Prime Minister Fidel Castro said Tuesday night.

Addressing a graduation ceremony for 400 militia officers in Matanzas, Castro said his revolutionary army no longer is a collection of guerrillas but is composed of "companies, battalions, divisions, armies and army corps."

He again accused the United States of preparing a new invasion of Cuba but said his forces would "inflict on our enemies an even bigger defeat" than in the April invasion that was crushed at the Bay of Pigs on Cuba's southern coast.

way, nothing was too tedious for their busy hands and beauty loving hearts.

One of the interesting things they did was to skeletonize foliage, paint it and arrange it under those glass domes so favored in Victorian times.

About 20 years ago or longer, Miss Laura Martin occupied the Van Cleef house which Paul Hang later bought.

MISS MARTIN guarded the Van Cleef treasures well. One of the things she was most proud of was an arrangement of white skeletonized leaves in a Victorian dome. They were painted white and were as delicate and fragile as snowflakes.

When we read this summer about skeletonized Chinese lanterns we wondered if anybody remembered how to skeletonize leaves.

Some Good Tips For Landscaping

So you think you have a complete landscape job!

Here's what complete landscaping accomplishes for the home owner, according to the American Association of Nurserymen. Check your property to see what you lack.

1. Good landscaping makes a lovely picture of the house from the street. It ties house and land together by use of trees and shrubs to provide a pleasing "lived-in" look to the house.

2. Sound landscaping includes a garden or outdoor living area, or patio planted for outdoor recreation, dining and entertaining.

3. Proper landscaping includes trees and shrubs that supply adequate shade and privacy to the living area. In locations where homes are exposed to cold winds in winter, proper planting of windbreaks offers more comfort on the property and lower fuel bills. It is cold winds that run up the fuel bills and if the house is protected by evergreen trees, fuel costs are kept lower.

4. A well-planted property should provide plenty of cut flowers for use inside the home.

Wilson Rites Due Friday

Ike Pays Tribute To 'Good Friend'

NORWOOD, La. (AP)—The death of Charles E. Wilson, secretary of defense under former President D. Eisenhower, was the loss "of one of America's outstanding leaders and my good friend," said Eisenhower.

Wilson, 71, former president of General Motors, died Tuesday of a coronary thrombosis while he slept in his three-story home on his 4,000-acre plantation "Richland."

Funeral services will be held at 11 a. m. Friday at Christ Church (Cranbrook) Bloomfield Hills, Mich., followed by burial in Acacia Park Cemetery.

National leaders across the country mourned Wilson's passing.

Eisenhower, at his Gettysburg, Pa., farm, said: "In his long business career, Mr. Wilson dedicated his unusual talents to the growth and progress of one of the large corporations that has helped to bring higher standards to every person in the country."

"I join all other Americans in a salute to the memory of this distinguished citizen."

In Washington, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said Wilson "rendered great service to his nation as an industrial leader in World War II, and during his long tenure as secretary of defense, our nation has lost a great industrialist, leader, true patriot and a devoted public servant."

Many friends and neighbors dropped by the Richland plantation to pay their respect.

Wilson's plantation staff knew him well.

Mabel Grant, Negro housemaid who has worked all her life at the plantation, said: "A good man is gone."

MRS. HERMAN Davis brought over a scabiosa blossom for me to identify and it's frustrating not to know what you're growing.

Mixed seeds are sometimes hard to identify and it's frustrating not to know what you're growing. Florence Fetherolf's variegated hydrangea which is frequently so beautiful at this time of year is a complete failure with no flowers at all.

We guess everybody had weed problems this summer, even Ed Ingram of Stringtown. Visitors were teasing him because at the very time we announced in our column that Ingram never had that first weed, he was having weed problems.

All I can say is that there weren't any weeds when I visited the Ingram garden.

Everytime I go to see Mildred Petty she shows me a new lupine that has weathered the summer. I maintain that lupines will not thrive in Pickaway County.

KEEP your eye on the Brehmer lawn. It's been treated with Erase which kills all vegetation. But in five days, a lawn so treated may be reseeded.

The moth muellin seeds which I brought from the pasture and sowed in my seed bed are up and growing. I hope that mother muellin is perennial.

Mrs. J. O. Eagleson and Mrs. Ed Fetherolf ought to be good friends. Mrs. Eagleson's always giving starts of things to people. And Florence Fetherolf can always coax slips and seeds to grow. Mrs. Eagleson gave me her Bocconia Cordata seeds one year. The bocconia is growing and blooming now.

The rumour is going around that one enthusiastic arranger ordered $20 worth of silica jells so she could try out the new flower drying process.

Everybody's wondering who's the rich arranger that can spend all that money on drying flowers.

Cereus Blooms At Willisons

A night blooming cereus will bloom only when it has considerable age, according to some experts.

Mrs. Robert Willison, Route 4, Circleville, may consider herself lucky. The night blooming cereus which she has owned for only three weeks bloomed last Thursday night.

The big plant was given to Mrs. Willison by her mother who lives in Woodfield. And her mother had received it from a friend only the day before she gave it to Mrs. Willison.

Mrs. Willison noticed a bud forming about a week after she brought the plant home.

THE night blooming cereus was on the Willison patio and the entire neighborhood was in a flurry of excitement about the blossom. It began to open about 6 p. m. and at 9 p. m. was almost fully open. Mrs. Willison said it was apparently the only bud the plant had. She reported that the blossom was fantastically beautiful.

Cuba Reorganizes Army into 3 Parts

HAVANA (AP)—Cuba has reorganized its army into three main corps as a defense against new invasions, Prime Minister Fidel Castro said Tuesday night.

Addressing a graduation ceremony for 400 militia officers in Matanzas, Castro said his revolutionary army no longer is a collection of guerrillas but is composed of "companies, battalions, divisions, armies and army corps."

He again accused the United States of preparing a new invasion of Cuba but said his forces would "inflict on our enemies an even bigger defeat" than in the April invasion that was crushed at the Bay of Pigs on Cuba's southern coast.

way, nothing was too tedious for their busy hands and beauty loving hearts.

One of the interesting things they did was to skeletonize foliage, paint it and arrange it under those glass domes so favored in Victorian times.

About 20 years ago or longer, Miss Laura Martin occupied the Van Cleef house which Paul Hang later bought.

MISS MARTIN guarded the Van Cleef treasures well. One of the things she was most proud of was an arrangement of white skeletonized leaves in a Victorian dome. They were painted white and were as delicate and fragile as snowflakes.

When we read this summer about skeletonized Chinese lanterns we wondered if anybody remembered how to skeletonize leaves.

Some Good Tips For Landscaping

So you think you have a complete landscape job?

Here's what complete landscaping accomplishes for the home owner, according to the American Association of Nurserymen. Check your property to see what you lack.

1. Good landscaping makes a lovely picture of the house from the street. It ties house and land together by use of trees and shrubs to provide a pleasing "lived-in" look to the house.

2. Sound landscaping includes a garden or outdoor living area, or patio planted for outdoor recreation, dining and entertaining.

3. Proper landscaping includes trees and shrubs that supply adequate shade and privacy to the living area. In locations where homes are exposed to cold winds in winter, proper planting of windbreaks offers more comfort on the property and lower fuel bills. It is cold winds that run up the fuel bills and if the house is protected by evergreen trees, fuel costs are kept lower.

4. A well-planted property should provide plenty of cut flowers for use inside the home.

Wilson Rites Due Friday

Ike Pays Tribute To 'Good Friend'

NORWOOD, La. (AP)—The death of Charles E. Wilson, secretary of defense under former President D. Eisenhower, was the loss "of one of America's outstanding leaders and my good friend," said Eisenhower.

Wilson, 71, former president of General Motors, died Tuesday of a coronary thrombosis while he slept in his three-story home on his 4,000-acre plantation "Richland."

Funeral services will be held at 11 a. m. Friday at Christ Church (Cranbrook) Bloomfield Hills, Mich., followed by burial in Acacia Park Cemetery.

National leaders across the country mourned Wilson's passing.

Eisenhower, at his Gettysburg, Pa., farm, said: "In his long business career, Mr. Wilson dedicated his unusual talents to the growth and progress of one of the large corporations that has helped to bring higher standards to every person in the country."

"I join all other Americans in a salute to the memory of this distinguished citizen."

In Washington, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said Wilson "rendered great service to his nation as an industrial leader in World War II, and during his long tenure as secretary of defense. Our nation has lost a great industrialist, leader, true patriot and a devoted public servant."

Many friends and neighbors dropped by the Richland plantation to pay their respect.

Wilson's plantation staff knew him well.

Mabel Grant, Negro housemaid who has worked all her life at the plantation, said: "A good man is gone."

New Law To Curb Reckless Driving on Public Property

A new law to curb reckless driving of autos on parking areas at shopping centers will go into effect this week, according to Pickaway County Representative Ed Wallace.

Enacted by the 104th Ohio General Assembly, the new statute will prohibit the reckless operation of a motor vehicle or trackless trolley or public or private property other than streets and highways, Rep. Wallace said. It is effective Monday.

This, he added, is another of the new laws passed as a part of a highway safety program by the General Assembly.

Violators may be fined up to $50 for first offense; $10 to $100 and up to 10 days in jail for second offense within a year and $25 to $200 and up to 30 days in jail for each subsequent offense.

It exempts competitive operation of vehicles permitted by the property owner.

A nine-member Ohio Educational Television Network Commission will come into being under a new law effective Oct. 5. Rep. Wallace also explained.

The commission will be made up of eight members appointed by the governor and the state superintendent of public instruction.

The commission can own and operate an educational TV network or contract for such facilities control programs of such networks; establish standards for interconnection facilities used by the commission to transmit educational TV and execute agreements to carry out commission purposes.

Effective Oct. 7, will be a new

Akron Hospital Council Fires on Blue Cross

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—The Akron Hospital Council has asked boards of five hospitals here to consider withdrawing from the Blue Cross of Northeast Ohio.

Administrators of the five hospitals which comprise the council claims that Blue Cross payments are insufficient to cover hospital expenses. They charge also, that the Blue Cross is inserting increasingly restrictive provisions into contracts with hospitals and is, in effect, telling the hospitals how to operate.

Views on TV-Radio

NEW YORK (AP)—Network television Wednesday night held the promise of a solid 3 1/2 hours of comedy: premier of Steve Allen's show and the debut of a new animated cartoon series on ABC and a Victor Borge and a Jack Benny special on CBS.

Borge, aided by Hermione Gingold, pianist Leonid Hambro and some very witty music and dancing, measured up handsomely. Steve Allen was back in a familiar format but perhaps trying a little too hard.

The animated cartoon, "Top Cat," was disappointing. And the show called "Carnegie Hall Salutes Jack Benny" was an hour of fine classical music by great artists with only a few minutes devoted to funny stuff.

It is nice to have Steve Allen back in weekly television. His show seems better organized than the old one and more thoroughly rehearsed. But maybe Steve has not been watching much television during his year and a half away from it. Much of his sketch material was old hat and the subjects have often been explored on other comedy shows.

"Top Cat," by the creators of "Huckleberry Hound," concerns the adventures of a band of alley cats with New York accents who live by their wits. The first show seemed neither witty nor unusual. But perhaps animated cartoon comedies, like olives, are acquired tastes with some viewers.

The Borge show, like his past specials, was a happy blend of good music and broad comedy.

Recommended tonight: "Dr. Kildare," premiere, NBC, 8:30-9:30 (Eastern Daylight Time)—New doctor series based on an old movie series with Raymond Massey and Vincent Edwards; "Hazel," premiere, CBS, 9:30-10—Shirley Booth's comedy series in which she plays an indomitable maid; "Sing Along with Mitch," season premiere, NBC, 10-11—return of the hit show of last season.

Public School Offers To Pay For 'Bus' to Private School

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—A lawyer in an Albany suburb has been offered a contract whereby he would be paid $1,300 a year by his school district for driving his two daughters to a private school in the family car.

The lawyer, Walter F. Wessendorf Jr., bid for the contract and has it but has not returned it, signed to the school district, the district business manager said today. The manager said the contract would not be final until the state approved it.

The district awarded the contract for transportation to the Albany Academy for Girls, under terms of a state law that extended the distance districts must transport pupils who choose to attend parochial and other private schools.

Wessendorf was the lowest of two bidders on a contract to transport his daughters to school, the superintendent of the Guildford Central School District said. Wessendorf's automobile has been licensed by the State Public Service Commission and is, in effect, a school bus for the two girls.

Communications Law Toughened by New Bill

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—Legislation stiffening the penalties for sabotage of communications systems became law Tuesday with the signature of President Kennedy.

The bill increases to a maximum of 10 years imprisonment and $10,000 fine the penalties for destruction or damage of communications companies' facilities that might be used by the government.

The measure grew out of the dynamiting last May of television relay facilities.

statute prohibiting the state liquor department from establishing drive-in liquor stores; selling liquor in less than pint bottles unless by special order and prohibit sale of liquor gift certificates.

Another new law allowing county commissioners to designate a county home as a county hospital, if suitable for those purposes, will go into effect October 5.

County commissioners will be ex-officio members of the six-member board of hospital trustees.

Other new laws effective Monday will:

Establish a state underground parking commission to construct and operate underground parking facilities anywhere in Ohio, to be financed with revenue bonds.

Permit an emancipated minor (free of parental care and custody) to ask probate court to authorize settlement of a damage claim without appointment of a guardian.

Exempt from arrest a person failing to obey a summons as a witness who has demanded and has not been paid his travel and witness fees for one day's attendance.

Authorize creation of regional airport authorities by one county or two or more contiguous counties.

Allow township trustees to lease additional office space and to lease land for 25 years or more for construction of such office space.

Permit municipalities to adopt by incorporation by reference standard ordinances and codes prepared by the state or its agencies or by public or private organizations.

Extend ban on counterfeiting and forgery to include tickets, passes and orders of railroads, street railway systems and toll bridges.

Also effective October 5, are new laws which will:

Expand the state law against bigamy.

Provide a penalty of $1000 to $10,000 fine and 10 to 20 years in prison for placing or exploding a bomb with intention of causing property damage or personal injury.

Reduce from 55 per cent to a bare majority the voter approval needed for a port authority tax levy.

Make Ohio civil defense laws conform to federal regulations.

Eliminate special provisions for selecting a jury in highway property condemnation actions.

The district awarded the contract for transportation to the Albany Academy for Girls, under terms of a state law that extended the distance districts must transport pupils who choose to attend parochial and other private schools.

Wessendorf was the lowest of two bidders on a contract to transport his daughters to school, the superintendent of the Guilderland Central School District said. Wessendorf's automobile has been licensed by the State Public Service Commission and is, in effect, a school bus for the two girls.

Supt. Alton U. Farnsworth said. "The state doesn't say a parent can't bid on transportation of his children," he said.

The law, which went into effect at the start of this school year, requires school districts to supply transportation for pupils within the district to schools they choose within 10 miles of their homes.

"We don't like the law, but we have to live with it," Farnsworth said.

Parents of pupils attending private schools must request transportation from the district. Wessendorf, who practices law from his home made the request, the school official said.

The superintendent said the district uses its own buses within the district, provides bus taken for high school pupils attending private schools and lets contracts for other needed transportation.

The Wessendorf children were the only ones attending Albany Academy for Girls whose parents had asked for transportation, Farnsworth said.

Communications Law Toughened by New Bill

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—Legislation stiffening the penalties for sabotage of communications systems became law Tuesday with the signature of President Kennedy.

The bill increases to a maximum of 10 years imprisonment and $10,000 fine the penalties for destruction or damage of communications companies' facilities that might be used by the government.

The measure grew out of the dynamiting last May of television relay facilities.

Slambang GOP Campaign Seen Coming in 1964

There was no immediate response from national GOP leaders to Nixon's decision to seek the governorship.

State Republican leaders, openly backing Nixon over three other announced GOP candidates, were plainly jubilant that he had agreed to run. But they faced the prospect of intraparty strife over the gubernatorial nomination.

Former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight gave notice he's in the GOP race to stay. So did the Assembly minority leader, Joseph C. Shell of Los Angeles. The fourth candidate, former Lt. Gov. Harold J. Powers, was unavailable for comment.

Knight, who gave way to former Sen. William F. Knowland's Nixon-supported candidacy and withdrew from the race for governor in 1958, gave this advice to Democrats in a televised interview: Register Republican next year so you can vote against Nixon in the June primary.

Californians will be able to vote only for their own party candidates in that primary for the first time in modern history. Cross-filing, which allowed office-seekers to run on both tickets, was repealed by the 1959 Democratic legislature.

Nixon, brisk and confident and natty in an all-blue ensemble, told newsmen that he actually didn't decide until Tuesday night that he would go after the $40,000-a-year state job.

Only five people knew of his plans in advance, he said. They were his wife Pat, daughters Julie, 13, and Tricia, 15; former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Kyle Palmer, ailing retired political editor of the Los Angeles Times.

Nixon opened the news conference with a 10-minute statement in which he struck hard at Gov. Brown and his Democratic administration.

"California needs a new governor," he said. "It needs a new leader."

Nixon said that after 14 years as a California congressman (1946-50) and senator (1950-52) then vice president of the United States, he found himself restive in his role as a practicing attorney.

"I find that my heart is not there, it is in public service," he said.

He said he was disturbed that California's state government expenditures are the highest in the nation; that law enforcement is "below the national average;" that education has been "short-changed" because of "payoffs for political boondoggling;" that employment lagged behind population growth.

Nixon said he had reached this conclusion:

"That the amiable but bungling mar. who presently is the governor of this state cannot clean up this mess for which he is partially and in many instances substantially responsible."

Asked why he had said yes to

CHS Tigers Ready for WCH, Homecoming Activity Friday

Football season for the Circleville Tigers opens up on all eight cinders Friday night when Washington C. H. comes here to help the locals initiate South Central Ohio League play.

Maris Takes Day Off from Homer Search

Sandy Koufax Sets Strikeout Record, Whiffing His 269th

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Sandy Koufax broke a 58-year-old strikeout record. Little-used Al Schroll made a strong bid for a no-hitter. But the big baseball noise was made by Roger Maris — and he took the day off.

Maris, who hit his 60th home run Tuesday night and received a thunderous ovation, almost had his membership in the club revoked Wednesday when he took a much needed rest.

The Yankee slugger, with three more games remaining against Boston in which to become the most productive one-season homer hitter in major league annals, left the bench in the middle of the game with Baltimore and was booed by many of the 7,504 fans on hand to see him swing.

"I think he did want was right for him," said Manager Ralph Houk after the American League champion New York Yankees lost to the Orioles 3-2. "We agreed it would be best for him to sit this game out. Besides, it wasn't his decision; it was mine."

The Yankees also played without Mickey Mantle, No. 2 man in the M & M combination. Mantle, who has hit 54 homers, has been bothered by a virus condition for the past 10 days, and finally was ordered to bed by the team physician.

Maris said: "I'm plain bushed. I was so tired I could hardly run. Naturally I want that 61st home run, but I think it is for my best interest, and the club's for me to be in the best possible shape for the World Series."

The day off gives Maris a two-day rest as the Yankees are idle today. They wind up the regular season with a three-game set against the Red Sox before tackling the National League champion Cincinnati Reds in the World Series.

Without Maris and Mantle, the Yankees proved an important group against Steve Barber (18-12), who gave up a homer to Yogi Berra among six hits. Jim Gentile's two-run homer, his 46th, off Bill Stafford (13-9) in the first and rookie Johnny Powell's run-producing single—his first major league hit—in the third won it for the Orioles.

Koufax brought his season strikeout total to 269 by fanning seven Phillies and bettered the 267 compiled by Christy Mathewson of the New York Giants in 1903. But the Los Angeles Dodgers southpaw lost to Philadelphia 2-1 on a pair of unearned runs in the third inning.

The Dodgers, however, clinched second place when the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the third-place San Francisco Giants 5-3 on Bill Mazeroski's two-run homer in the ninth. Chicago downed St. Louis 5-2 on homers by Danny Murphy and Ken Hubbs and George Altman. Schroll (4-3), a burly right-hander, held Cleveland hitless for eight innings and then allowed only two hits en route to and lasting until kickoff time. Then comes Homecoming activity during intervals of the game and a dance afterward.

All this will be in addition to what should be one of the key games of the season for the Tigers. A CHS-WCH grid encounter is always a fiery scrap and this one should be no exception.

Circleville wades into the battle with a 3-0 mark while Washington is 1-2. The Blue Lions dropped their first two tests, but came back strong last week to clobber Xenia Woodrow Wilson, 48-20.

Browns, Dallas Mum on Crew For Grid Tilt

CLEVELAND (AP) — Between Cleveland Browns Coach Paul Brown and Tom Landry, coach of the Dallas Cowboys, you could find out little or nothing about who will be in their starting backfields when the teams clash in a National Football League contest here Sunday.

Somebody asked Brown if his left halfback would be Bobby Mitchell or Tom Watkins.

"I prefer not to announce the starter for tactical reasons," said Brown. "They are different types of runners and I'm sure Dallas would like to know which one will be in there at the start. I plan to use both of them."

Landry didn't announce his starting quarterback before either of Dallas' two previous games. He can choose between Don Meredith, second year pro from Southern Methodist, and veteran Eddie LeBaron.

The sight of Rich Kreitling and Bobby Crespino running normally Wednesday was a pleasant one for Brown. Both receivers have been hobbled by injuries and it has hampered the team's aerial game.

Kreitling and Crespino both play the left flanker.

Buffalo Is Winner Of 'Little Series'

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Off to a flashy start when the Junior World Series was begun 57 years ago, Buffalo won two straight. It wasn't until this year that the Bisons again had the title in their grasp.

Five times since that 1904 inaugural of the minor league World Series Buffalo has knocked at the door, but this year the Bisons finally made it with a four-game sweep over Louisville.

The International League representatives' rookie right-hander Paul Brown allowed Louisville only one scratchy hit in a 4-0 shutout Wednesday night that took the title.

Walter Hagen won his first U. S. Open golf title in 1914 at the age of 21. He repeated in 1919. The Open was not held the two previous years.

a 10-4 victory in his first complete game.

Frank Lary brought his record to 23-9 as Detroit whipped Kansas City 10-2 on homers by Rocky Colavito, Norm Casa and Bubba Morton. Jim Pagliaroni drove in two runs with a homer and double in Boston's 6-4 victory over Chicago, and Los Angeles' Angels downed Washington 8-6 in another night game with a three-run rally in the eighth.

Ducats on Sale For Tiger Tilt

Due to the heavy demand for tickets for tomorrow night's CHS-Washington C. H. Homecoming football game here, Robert Ransom, Circleville faculty athletic manager, has announced additional times for the sale of ducats.

Reserved seats will be on sale today from 3:30 to 5 p. m. and all day Friday in the main hall of the high school building.

Student admission slips are to be placed on sale today and tomorrow in the high school and all elementary schools at 40 cents each. Gallagher's Drug Store will again handle a sale of student tickets Friday until 6 p. m.

A sellout crowd is expected at CHS field tomorrow night when the unbeaten Tigers open their bid for the 1961 South Central Ohio League championship.

Californica Poly Fields Team Again

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—California State Polytechnic College of San Luis Obispo will play its first football game Saturday night since 16 members of the team were killed in a plane crash last year in Toledo, Ohio.

Ten of the 22 players who survived the disaster are on the squad which opens here against San Diego State College. The other 12 graduated, left school or suffered such severe injuries they are unable to play.

Coach Leroy B. Hughes, who has mentored 16 transfer students and 10 players from the freshman team, describes his chances this season as "bleak."

Kickoff time is 8 p. m. following the Fish Fry activity and pregame ceremonies.

Yanks Hold Edge on Red Pitchers

NEW YORK (AP) — Experience gives the New York Yankees the edge in pitching over the Cincinnati Reds.

No one has started more games in World Series history than Whitey Ford, the ace of the American League pennant winners. The brilliant left-hander has started 14, compiled a 7-4 mark and is tied for most victories with Allie Reynolds and Red Ruffing.

Ralph Terry and Bill Stafford, who figure to draw the other starting assignments for New York, worked in last year's series. Terry lost two games yielding the home run to Bill Mazeroski in the final game that gave Pittsburgh the title. Stafford pitched six innings with no decisions.

Luis Arroyo, Jim Coates and Bob Turley of the Yanks also have seen series action.

On the other hand, none of the 10 Cincinnati pitchers eligible for the 1961 postseason championships starting in Yankee Stadium next Wednesday has any series experience.

The starting pitchers almost are certain to be Ford (25-4), Terry (15-3) and Stafford (13-9) for New York and Joey Jay (21-9), Jim O'Toole (18-9) and Bob Purkey (16-12) for the Reds.

The fact that all six have impressive won-lost records is a tribute to the teams' excellent relief pitchers — Arroyo (15-5) for the Yankees and Jim Brosnan (10-3) and Bill Henry (2-1) for the Reds. These three will be the late-inning relievers. Coates (11-5) and Bud Daley (12-17) for New York and Ken Johnson (6-2) and Jim Maloney (6-7) of Cincinnati are likely to get the relief calls from the first through the sixth innings.

On a collective basis, The Reds' pitchers have 46 complete games, 12 shutouts, permitted 143 homers and a 3.78 earned run average. Yankee pitchers have totaled 47 complete games, 13 shutouts, 127 home runs and a 3.51 ERA.

CHS Tigers Ready for WCH, Homecoming Activity Friday

Football season for the Circleville Tigers opens up on all eight cylinders Friday night when Washington C. H. comes here to help the locals initiate South Central Ohio League play.

A full night of events is on the schedule. The evening will begin with a Fish Fry by the CHS Booster Club, starting at 5 p. m.

Maris Takes Day Off from Homer Search

Sandy Koufax Sets Strikeout Record, Whiffing His 269th

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sandy Koufax broke a 58-year-old strikeout record. Little-used Al Schroll made a strong bid for a no-hitter. But the big baseball noise was made by Roger Maris—and he took the day off.

Maris, who hit his 60th home run Tuesday night and received a thunderous ovation, almost had his membership in the club revoked Wednesday when he took a much needed rest.

The Yankee slugger, with three more games remaining against Boston in which to become the most productive one-season homer hitter in major league annals, left the bench in the middle of the game with Baltimore and was booed by many of the 7,504 fans on hand to see him swing.

"I think he did what was right for him," said Manager Ralph Houk after the American League champion New York Yankees lost to the Orioles 3-2. "We agreed it would be best for him to sit this game out. Besides, it wasn't his decision; it was mine."

The Yankees also played without Mickey Mantle, No. 2 man in the M & M combination. Mantle, who has hit 54 homers, has been bothered by a virus condition for the past 10 days, and finally was ordered to bed by the team physician.

Maris said: "I'm plain bushed. I was so tired I could hardly run. Naturally I want that 61st home run, but I think it is for my best interest and the club's for me to be in the best possible shape for the World Series."

The day off gives Maris a two-day rest as the Yanks are idle today. They wind up the regular season with a three-game set against the Red Sox before tackling the National League champion Cincinnati Reds in the World Series.

Without Maris and Mantle, the Yankees proved an important group against Steve Barber (18-12), who gave up a homer to Yogi Berra among six hits. Jim Gentile's two-run homer, his 46th, off Bill Stafford (13-9) in the first and rookie Johnny Powell's run-producing single—his first major league hit—in the third won it for the Orioles.

Koufax brought his season strikeout total to 269 by fanning seven Phillies and bettered the 267 compiled by Christy Mathewson of the New York Giants in 1903. But the Los Angeles Dodgers southpaw lost to Philadelphia 2-1 on a pair of unearned runs in the third inning.

The Dodgers, however, clinched second place when the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the third-place San Francisco Giants 5-3 on Bill Mazeroski's two-run homer in the ninth. Chicago downed St. Louis 5-2 on homers by Danny Murphy, rookie Ken Hubbs and George Altman. Schroll (4-3), a burly right-hander, held Cleveland hitless for eight innings and then allowed only two hits en route to and lasting until kickoff time. Then comes Homecoming activity during intervals of the game and a dance afterward.

All this will be in addition to what should be one of the key games of the season for the Tigers. A CHS-WCH grid encounter is always a fiery scrap and this one should be no exception.

Circleville wades into the battle with a 3-0 mark while Washington is 1-2. The Blue Lions dropped their first two tests, but came back strong last week to clobber Xenia Woodrow Wilson, 48-20.

quarback John Enochs.

The Tigers of Carl Benhase will counter with the running capacity of Garold Dade, Freddie Moore and Duke Fyffe and the tossing arm of Bob Waple.

Up front the Tigers probably will have John Pharr, Cleson Thomas and Dave Hannahs working the ends, Keith Tomerson and Vern Reichmanis at tackles, Tom Bivens, Larry Adams and possibly injured Jim Anderson at the guards and Captain Pat Rooney at center.

Washington will come to town with a few injuries to key players. Halfback Bob Helfrich and end Mike Garringer, both missing last week's game, probably will be sidelined again. Helfrich has torn arm ligaments and Garringer a broken thumb.

Offensive end Eddie Rose suffered an ankle injury earlier this week, but is expected to be ready Friday.

The Tigers have had their own problems this week fighting the now prevalent flu bug. Varsitymen Dade and Waple both suffered a mild attack and other players may feel the effects by Friday.

THE sickness problem was attacked immediately by the Booster Club which ordered flu shots for the entire varsity team and coaches. Dr. H. H. Swope and his nurse moved to the practice field yesterday afternoon to administer the shots.

Other than the flu outbreak, Coach Benhase said his squad appears to be in good physical condition, a factor which has played heavily in Tiger victories over Athens and Bexley.

Benhase said his starting lineup will be about the same as last week unless last minute changes crop up. It has been indicated Washington may institute some changes.

Kickoff time is 8 p. m. following the Fish Fry activity and pre-game ceremonies.

DEAR PUBLIC:

I know I'm just a freshman when it comes to the automobile business but believe me a turn at the wheel of the new, I do mean BRAND new, Buick 4000 series with its V-6 engine will give you the thrill of a lifetime. You'll walk away from it feeling as cocky as a college sophomore. Driving in heavy traffic becomes a pleasure with this buzz buggy and holes in the line that never used to be there just seem to open up and say, "Be my guest". I caught bus drivers, truck drivers, taxi drivers and even big car operators giving me the eye and boy did I feel proud of that little gem. This essay may not get me an 'A' for this next quarter but if you come down and take the thrill ride that I took, I know that I will pass in your book and that's all that counts.

Yours for a JOY RIDE,

Upper Sandusky Area Is Rich In Lore of Wyandot Indians

UPPER SANDUSKY, Ohio — This area is rich in Indian lore for it was originally the home of the Wyandot Indians. The Wyandots were the last organized band of Indians to leave Ohio, moving to a reservation in Kansas in 1842. The part played by the Wyandots in the early history of Upper Sandusky is preserved in the many monuments to be found by visitors to this area.

SE Ohio Talks Scheduled on Redevelopment

WASHINGTON (AP) — Meetings will be held in Athens and Jackson next week to work out development programs for eight counties under the Federal Area Redevelopment Act, Rep. Walter H. Moeller, D-Ohio, has announced.

"We have a golden opportunity," Moeller said, "to improve the economic climate of the area, stimulate more business and provide more jobs for the people of Southeast Ohio."

The Lancaster Democrat who represents the eight-county 10th Congressional District said counties must have a development program of their own before becoming eligible for low interest loans, technical assistance and other benefits under the new program.

A meeting for Athens, Fairfield, Hocking and Vinton counties will be held at Ohio University in Athens Oct. 5. The next day officials from Jackson, Gallia, Lawrence and Meigs counties will meet at the Cambrian Hotel in Jackson.

Specialists from the Area Redevelopment Administration will be on hand at both meetings, Moeller said.

August Traffic Fatalities High

August's traffic fatalities in Ohio show a 12 per cent increase over last year's figure, the Ohio Department of Highway Safety's statistical office announced today. Traffic accidents claimed 185 lives in August, 1961, compared with 165 during the same month in 1960.

The statistical report also disclosed that more traffic deaths were recorded in August than during any other month so far this year.

The comparatively low death rate for the year continues, however, with the recording of the lowest eight month accumulative fatality figure in three years. The total number of traffic deaths for the period of January through August was 1020, a reduction of 16 per cent from the total of 1220 in 1960, and a reduction of 8 per cent from the eight month figure in 1959 which was 1105.

Vehicle Registrations In Ohio Hit 4,391,836

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A record high in motor vehicle registrations during the 1960 registration year was reported Wednesday by state Auditor James A. Rhodes. The auditor said the total count for the year ended March 31, 1961, was 4,391,836, an increase of 119,454 over the previous high in the 1959 registration year.

Dr. Sabin Memorial Campaign Is Opened

CINCINNATI (AP) — A campaign to raise $100,000 for a memorial to Dr. Albert B. Sabin, developer of oral polio vaccine, is underway in Cincinnati.

The Sabin Tribute Committee hopes to raise the money to buy 50,000 trees for an Albert B. Sabin woodland and children's recreation area in Israel's Freedom Forest.

Boy, 3, Finds Best Time To Go Shopping

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—Grocery shoppers who are tired of fighting crowds should take a tip from 3-year-old Tony Fitch.

Do your shopping early. Before the store opens.

Lloyd Underwood, assistant manager of an A & P market, arrived at the store at 8:37 a. m. Wednesday to get ready for the day's business—and found a customer inside waiting for the doors to open.

Standing by a checkout counter was Tony, munching on pretzel sticks in one hand and holding a sack of chewing gum in the other.

City patrolman Howard Wikoff was sent to try to solve the puzzle. Wikoff took the boy home, and the officer's thought that Tony might have spent the night inside the store quickly dispelled.

Tony's mother said the youngster had slept with her all night. And a neighbor said she had talked with Tony earlier this morning, and that Tony told her he had a dime and was going shopping.

Stumped as to how Tony got in, patrolman Wikoff took the boy back to the market and asked him. Tony pointed to the double front doors and said "there."

Wikoff said this was hardly possible. One door is for exits and has no outside handle, and the other was locked when Underwood arrived.

Police theorize that Tony might have found a small hole somewhere outside the building and crawled through. If this is so, Tony's isn't saying. He has a good thing going for him.

He did his shopping. He still has his dime.

A Savoy noble, Bernard de Menton, who became a monk, saw a desperate need for a mountain refuge in the Alps. He built the hospice that bears his name.

Franklin-Mound PTA Group In First Meeting of Year

The Franklin-Mound St. School PTA conducted its first meeting of the year this week in the kindergarten room, with Mrs. W. A. McConaughy presiding as chairman.

Teachers and respective room mothers introduced were:

Mrs. Rosemary Hughes and Mrs. Gerald Bowers and Mrs. Marvin Marshall, kindergarten; Mrs. Jean Kelley and Mrs. Ted Sims and Mrs. Robert Edgington; kindergarten;

Mrs. Mary Johnson and Mrs. Elizabeth Ward — Mrs. Otto Guenther and Mrs. Louis Richardson, 1st grade; Mrs. Virginia Hendrickson and Mrs. Dorothy Dunkle — Mrs. Robert Dunn and Mrs. Wes Edstrom Jr., 2nd grade; Miss Elsie Updyke and Miss Amy Miga — Mrs. Leo Morgan and Mrs. Charles Bolthouse, 3rd grade;

MRS. OPAL SIMS and Mrs. Evaline Wolford — Mrs. William Hughes and Mrs. Walton Spangler, 4th grade; Mrs. Ruby Wallon and Mrs. Harriett Riser — Mrs. Gerald Ayers and Mrs. Harold Hoffman, 5th grade; and Mrs. Anna Brevard, Mrs. Roy Farmer, 6th grade.

The group decided to purchase draperies for two rooms in the Mound St. Elementary building. It was announced that the Franklin-Mound PTA would be working in the Pumpkin Show booth on Saturday this year. The need for volunteers to work and to bake pies was stressed.

Mrs. David Yates, program chairman, introduced the six candidates for election to the City Board of Education. George Hartman, superintendent of city schools, was introduced as the principal speaker.

Hartman showed slides of the various problems and needs confronting our schools today. He also outlined the proposed bond issue to be placed before the voters in November, pointing out that it is actually a renewal of the present operating levy.

The resignation of Mrs. McConaughy as chairman was accepted due to her child being transferred to another school district. Mrs. Forrest Hoffman will assume the duties.

Refreshments were served to approximately 125 teachers and parents by Mrs. Gerald Easter, chairman, who was assisted by Mrs. Gerald Bowers, Mrs. Marvin Marshall, Mrs. Ted Sims and Mrs. Robert Edgington.

After World War II a Missouri-sized piece of Poland was given to Russia. In compensation, Poland was awarded the Kentucky-sized chunk of Germany now known as the Western Territories.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

The leading edge of a large mass of cold air was entering Ohio this morning.

Cloudy skies prevailed over almost all of the state except the extreme northwest.

Temperatures were rather mild in the cloudy areas, mostly in the 50s, but in the extreme northwest the temperature dropped into the low 40s.

A large high pressure system centered over Nebraska is draining cold Canadian air down over the Midwest. This will result in frost or near freezing temperatures tonight in many portions of the state.

Some early morning temperatures were Columbus, 55, Dayton 52, Cincinnati 57, Cleveland 51, Findlay 47 and Toledo 40.

Upper Sandusky Area Is Rich In Lore of Wyandot Indians

UPPER SANDUSKY, Ohio — This area is rich in Indian lore for it was originally the home of the Wyandot Indians. The Wyandots were the last organized band of Indians to leave Ohio, moving to a reservation in Kansas in 1842. The part played by the Wyandots in the early history of Upper Sandusky is preserved in the many monuments to be found by visitors to this area.

SE Ohio Talks Scheduled on Redevelopment

WASHINGTON (AP) — Meetings will be held in Athens and Jackson next week to work out development programs for eight counties under the Federal Area Redevelopment Act, Rep. Walter H. Moeller, D-Ohio, has announced.

"We have a golden opportunity," Moeller said, "to improve the economic climate of the area, stimulate more business and provide more jobs for the people of Southeast Ohio."

The Lancaster Democrat who represents the eight-county 10th Congressional District said counties must have a development program of their own before becoming eligible for low interest loans, technical assistance and other benefits under the new program.

A meeting for Athens, Fairfield, Hocking and Vinton counties will be held at Ohio University in Athens Oct. 5. The next day officials from Jackson, Gallia, Lawrence and Meigs counties will meet at the Cambrian Hotel in Jackson.

Specialists from the Area Redevelopment Administration will be on hand at both meetings, Moeller said.

August Traffic Fatalities High

August's traffic fatalities in Ohio show a 12 per cent increase over last year's figure, the Ohio Department of Highway Safety's statistical office announced today. Traffic accidents claimed 185 lives in August, 1961, compared with 165 during the same month in 1960.

The statistical report also disclosed that more traffic deaths were recorded in August than during any other month so far this year.

The comparatively low death rate for the year continues, however, with the recording of the lowest eight month accumulative fatality figure in three years. The total number of traffic deaths for the period of January through August was 1020, a reduction of 16 per cent from the total of 1220 in 1960, and a reduction of 8 per cent from the eight month figure in 1959 which was 1105.

Vehicle Registrations In Ohio Hit 4,391,836

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A record high in motor vehicle registrations during the 1960 registration year was reported Wednesday by state Auditor James A. Rhodes. The auditor said the total count for the year ended March 31, 1961, was 4,391,836, an increase of 119,454 over the previous high in the 1959 registration year.

Dr. Sabin Memorial Campaign Is Opened

CINCINNATI (AP) — A campaign to raise $100,000 for a memorial to Dr. Albert B. Sabin, developer of oral polio vaccine, is underway in Cincinnati.

The Sabin Tribute Committee hopes to raise the money to buy 50,000 trees for an Albert B. Sabin woodland and children's recreation area in Israel's Freedom Forest.

Boy, 3, Finds Best Time To Go Shopping

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—Grocery shoppers who are tired of fighting crowds should take a tip from 3-year-old Tony Fitch.

Do your shopping early. Before five store opens.

Lloyd Underwood, assistant manager of an A & P market, arrived at the store at 8:37 a. m. Wednesday to get ready for the day's business—and found a customer inside waiting for the doors to open.

Standing by a checkout counter was Tony, munching on pretzel sticks in one hand and holding a sack of chewing gum in the other. City patrolman Howard Wikoff was sent to try to solve the puzzle. Wikoff took the boy home, and the officer's thought that Tony might have spent the night inside the store quickly dispelled.

Tony's mother said the youngster had slept with her all night. And a neighbor said she had talked with Tony earlier this morning, and that Tony told her he had a dime and was going shopping.

Stumped as to how Tony got in, patrolman Wikoff took the boy back to the market and asked him. Tony pointed to the double front doors and said "there."

Wikoff said this was hardly possible. One door is for exits and has no outside handle, and the other was locked when Underwood arrived.

Police theorize that Tony might have found a small hole somewhere outside the building and crawled through. If this is so, Tony's isn't saying. He has a good thing going for him.

He did his shopping. He still has his dime.
